1229. McINTYRE, HAL as cl ar B

Born November 29, 1914, Cromwell, Conn.

Died May 5, 1959, in California apartment fire

Excellent musician, gained fame as lead altoist with Glenn Miller and later as bandleader. Led band in Connecticut 1935-6. With Glenn Miller early 1937 at start of original band. On third alto, a year later switched to first alto. Left fall 1941 to start band. Miller helped, gave him about 40 unused arrangements. Band opened at Glen Island Casino, New Rochelle, N.Y. Dave Matthews early key man as arranger and tenor sax soloist; delicately-shaded arrangements (some Ellington-influenced) set style of band. McIntyre's sensitive, beautiful alto featured on ballads and mood pieces. Later arrangers in mid-40s Howard Gibeling, Danny Hurd, Sid Schwartz. Featured sidemen Joe Weidman (t), Eddie Safranski (b), Jimmy Emert (tb), Johnny Hayes (ts). Helen Ward featured vocalist around 1943, Ruth Gaylor 1945-6. Band worked fairly regularly in late 40s and 50s. Late 1958 band to west coast, by early 1959 ran out of jobs and broke up. McIntyre planning comeback, booking tour and writing arrangements when died in fire apparently started by cigarette.

1230. McKENZIE, RED vo kazoo B (WILLIAM McKENZIE)

Born October 14, c. 1899-1903, St. Louis, Mo

Died February 7, 1948, New York, N.Y.

Important figure in 20s and 30s jazz as organizer-bandleader-vocalist. Warm, sincere vocal style, husky, virile voice. Grew up in Washington, D.C. As young man worked at non-musical jobs; period as jockey. Though unable to play an instrument, attracted to music. About 1923 formed Mound City Blue Blowers in St. Louis. Members and "instruments" were McKenzie (comb and paper), Dick Slevin (kazoo), Jack Bland (banjo). Group was aided in obtaining Brunswick record contract by bandleaders Gene Rodemich and Isham Jones. Early records attracted attention, led to theatre tours. Guitarist Eddie Lang joined awhile, toured England with group late 1924-5. After mid-20s group's novelty wore off but McKenzie continued it off and on during 20s, augmented it for later record sessions. Good organizer and booker, McKenzie assembled top jazzmen for classic record sessions. Recorded as free-lance vocalist. Vocalist with Paul Whiteman late 1932-3. During swing craze 1935-6 major figure around New York's 52nd Street, booked and led combos, had own club awhile. Led swinging combos of outstanding jazzmen, sang and recorded with them. Late 30s returned to St. Louis, mostly away from music. Club job in New York 1939. In 40s some club work and records. Ill health in last years.

✓ Born June 18, 1910, Fort Worth, Texas

Excellent drummer in jazz combos or big bands, personable singer and bandleader. Novelty and rhythm vocals musicianly, showmanly. Early 30s in various locales with Tracy-Brown Orchestra, Jimmy Joy, Milt Shaw, Smith Ballew. Joined Dorsey Brothers band spring 1934. When Dorseys separated mid-1935, McKinley continued in band under leader Jimmy. Left mid-1939, joined Will Bradley as co-leader of big band (though Bradley publicized as leader). Band featured boogie woogie, McKinley vocals, superb ballads, crisp white swing. Popular early 40s. (See WILL BRADLEY biography herein for star personnel and hit records.) McKinley wanted to feature more boogie woogie, differed with Bradley, quit early 1942, formed band featuring Dick Cathcart (t), Mahlon Clark (cl), Lou Stein (p), Brad Gowans (tb). Played New York and California; in movie HIT PARADE OF 1943. 1943-5 military service with Glenn Miller's AAF orchestra here and overseas; leader (with Jerry Gray) after Miller's death late 1944. Formed band 1946 featuring Eddie Sauter's progressive arrangements; Deane Kincaide also arranged. Good personnel but featured many novelties. Popular records Hoodle Addle and You've Come a Long Way from St. Louis. Theme Howdy, Friends. Personnel included Peanuts Hucko (cl), Vern Friley (tb), Lou Stein (p), Mundell Lowe (g), Nick Travis (t). McKinley continued band till 1950, then worked as single and led band occasionally. Worked awhile as disc jockey. Mid-1956 led Glenn Miller Orchestra, with approval of Miller's widow Helen. Played U.S. military bases in many countries 1957, worked into 60s, perpetuated Miller sound and former hits, performed new material. Used mostly young musicians; Lennie Hambro lead alto and clarinetist several years. McKinley ideal front man, performed on drums and vocals. Quit music 1965, band continuing under Buddy DeFranco. Returned in 70s for occasional jobs leading orchestra in Miller style. McKinley composer or lyricist of novelty numbers Hoodle Addle; Strange Cargo; Arizay; My Guy's Come Back; Howdy, Friends; Comin' Out (Drums Away).

✓ (leader WILLIAM "BILL" MCKINNEY, born c. 1894, Paducah, Ky.)

Top Negro band of 20s to early 30s. Excellent arrangements, good ensemble sound, infectious rhythm. Played jazz in style attractive to popular audiences. Outstanding personnel included capable jazz soloists and vocalists. McKinney formed Synco Septet in Springfield, Ohio, around 1920. Group's early emphasis on comedy and vaudeville. McKinney played drums several years, then turned chair over to Cuba Austin and worked as leader-manager. Group gradually increased in size and improved musically. In 1926 booked by Jean Goldkette for Detroit's Greystone Ballroom, given name McKinney's Cotton Pickers. Played New York, Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Atlantic City and elsewhere. Don Redman musical director-arranger-sideman 1927-31, fashioned great band. Outstanding Victor records 1928-31. 1930 commercial hits If I Could Be with You and Baby, Won't You Please Come Home?. Mid-1931 Redman replaced by Benny Carter for a year. Band broke up in Baltimore 1934. Outstanding jazzmen included John Nesbitt (t), Claude Jones (tb), Don Redman (as), Prince Robinson (cl, ts), Joe Smith (t), Benny Carter (as), Coleman Hawkins (ts), Fats Waller (p), Cuba Austin (d), Todd Rhodes (p), Ed Cuffee (tb), Rex Stewart (t), Quentin Jackson (tb), Billy Taylor (b), Edward Inge (cl), Doc Cheatham (t), Hilton Jefferson (as), James P. Johnson (p). Vocalists George Thomas, Don Redman, Dave Wilborn, Lois Deppe, Quentin Jackson. Detroit musicians revived band, played old book in 70s, appeared at 1974 Newport/New York jazz festival.

1245. MERCER, MABEL

vo

Born 1900, Staffordshire, England

Singing star of intimate New York clubs. Repertoire dominated by obscure songs of value. Singing style subtle, sophisticated. From theatrical family. Toured English vaudeville as dancer. Performed in English musical comedies, then in clubs. Great success in Paris starring for years at Bricktop's Club. To U.S. 1938, big hit at Ruban Bleu club in New York. Worked in Bahamas awhile. Returned to U.S. 1941, based in New York. Successful return engagement at Ruban Bleu, then good runs at Tony's 1942-9, Byline Room 1949-55, new Byline Room 1955-7. Played RSVP Club, later had own club and performed there. Usually only piano accompaniment. Set magic nostalgic moods with soft, subdued music, intelligently phrased lyrics, sometimes arcane songs (many from Broadway musicals). Admired by top singers, composers, personalities and just plain romanticists. Still active at intervals early 70s. Played Cafe Carlyle, Downstairs at the Upstairs, St. Regis Room.

(ETHEL ZIMMERMAN)

Born January 16, 1909, Astoria, N.Y.

Top performer in Broadway musicals from 30s into 50s. Brash style, loud theatrical singing, quavery vibrato in spots. Vibrant entertainer, sparked shows; widely acclaimed by critics and fans. Also in movies and on radio and TV. Often imitated. As child in amateur shows. Worked as secretary. Began singing in clubs, worked up to top spots. Big break in Broadway show GIRL CRAZY (1930), forever after associated with her feature in show, I Got Rhythm. Starred in 13 Broadway shows; most memorable ANYTHING GOES (1934; also in movie version), ANNIE GET YOUR GUN (1946), CALL ME MADAM (1950; also in movie version), GYPSY (1959). Latter climaxed illustrious stage career; remained with show two years. Other show songs associated with Miss Merman: Eadie Was a Lady; I Get a Kick Out of You; Blow, Gabriel, Blow; They Say It's Wonderful; You're Just in Love; There's No Business Like Show Business; Everything's Coming Up Roses. Featured in good movie musicals but never reached stage success in films. Radio guest spots occasionally; own 1935 show with Johnny Green band. In 1953 teamed with Mary Martin on TV for memorable Ford 50th Anniversary Show. Many TV appearances from 50s into 70s in specials and guest spots. Less active by later 60s.

1257. MEZZROW, MEZZ cl ts B
(MILTON MESIROW)

*Born November 9, 1899, Chicago, Ill.
Died August 5, 1972, Paris, France*

Colorful jazz character prominent in 30s and 40s. Sometime musician, not always popular; more acclaim later abroad. Rough life told candidly in engrossing autobiography Really the Blues published 1946. Loved Negro jazz, often played jobs and lived among Negroes, listed himself as Negro when jailed on dope charge 1940-42. Began jobbing in Chicago about 1923, occasionally with famed Austin High Gang. Freelanced in New York late 20s. Organized record sessions in 30s, sometimes performed on them. Led first big mixed band in Harlem 1937, flopped. Late 1938 located obscure trumpeter Tommy Ladnier, teamed on memorable jazz records. Led combo at intervals 1939-40. Mostly with Art Hodes 1943-4. Mid-40s had own King Jazz record company, recorded for it with Sidney Bechet as co-leader of combo. Toured France 1948, returned 1951 permanently. Toured Europe leading groups; well-regarded there. Based in Paris, occasionally active in 60s.

1264. MILLER, GLENN tb ar cm B (ALTON GLENN MILLER)

✓ *Born March 1, 1904, Clarinda, Iowa
 Lost in plane flight from England to France; left December 15, 1944, declared dead December 18, 1944*

Leader of most popular dance band of all time. Featured impeccable musicianship, unique reed sound with high-register clarinet doubling lead over the sax section. Average trombonist but talented organizer-leader-arranger. Younger brother Herb led a band at times, never prominent. Glenn grew up in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado. With Boyd Senter late 1921-2. Attended University of Colorado, quit to become musician. On west coast awhile; early 1926 to Chicago with Ben Pollack's star-studded band. Left Pollack in New York mid-1928 for jobbing and freelance arranging. Recorded with top jazzmen; good section man, adequate soloist. 1929-31 off and on with Red Nichols, Benny Goodman, Dorsey Brothers. In pit bands of Broadway shows. Toured with Smith Ballew as band musical director and arranger 1932-4. With Dorsey Brothers band spring 1934 till year end. Early 1935 organized and joined Ray Noble's first U.S. band which included outstanding jazzmen. Around this time wrote comic song When Icky Morgan Plays the Organ, Watch Out.

Spring 1935 first records under Miller name with some Noble men augmented by other jazz greats. 1936 arranging for Glen Gray, Ozzie Nelson, others. Radio with Freddie Rich, stint with Vincent Lopez orchestra. Formed band early 1937. Good personnel, recorded for Decca and Brunswick. Best engagement mid-year at Hotel Roosevelt's Blue Room in New Orleans. Toured, broke up at year end in financial failure. Spring 1938 organized new band, again with good personnel. Virtually unknown 1938. Developed famed reed sound, by spring 1939 attracted attention. Early hits coupled on same record: beautiful theme Moonlight Serenade (composed and arranged by Miller) and Sunrise Serenade. Spring date at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, N.J., followed by May-August engagement at Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, N.Y., received good radio coverage. Band clicked helped by steady flow of Bluebird records. Important early hits Little Brown Jug and In the Mood; many popular ballads. December 1939 began radio series for Chesterfield that ran till September 1942. 1940 hits Pennsylvania 6-5000, Tuxedo Junction, Blueberry Hill, Falling Leaves. Featured vocalists Ray Eberle and Marion Hutton. Tenor sax star Tex Beneke chief jazz soloist, novelty vocalist. Key sidemen Al Klink (ts), Billy May (tar), Hal McIntyre (as), Clyde Hurley (t), Johnny Best (t), Ernie Caceres (cl as), Moe Purtill (d), "Chummy" MacGregor (p). Clarinetist Wilbur Schwartz played lead, helped reeds achieve beautiful sound. Some arrangements by Miller; chief arranger Jerry Gray. Bill Finegan important arranger, later Billy May. The Modernaires vocal quartet joined January 1941; Paula Kelly sang with group March-August 1941. Band starred in 1941 movie SUN VALLEY SERENADE. Important record coupling two of movie's hits Chattanooga Choo Choo and I Know Why. Other 1941 hits Anvil Chorus, A String of Pearls and Elmer's Tune. 1942 starring movie ORCHESTRA WIVES yielded hits I've Got a Gal in Kalamazoo, At Last and Serenade in Blue. Other 1942 hits Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree, American Patrol, Juke Box Saturday Night, Moonlight Cocktail. Band switched from Bluebird to more expensive Victor label 1942. Bobby Hackett with band 1941-2, featured occasionally on cornet, mostly played rhythm guitar.

Great band broke up September 1942 with Miller enlistment in army air force as captain (later promoted to major). Directed large AAF dance band with strings. First duty in U.S., broadcast regularly in 1943, recorded on V-Discs. Early 1944 to England. Band's most famous number St. Louis Blues March. Jazz personnel included Mel Powell (p), Peanuts Hucko (cl), Ray McKinley (d), Bernie Privin (t). Featured vocalist Johnny Desmond, chief arranger Jerry Gray. December 15, 1944, Miller and AAF colonel took off in plane for Paris. Plane reported missing, never found. But Miller never forgotten. After Miller's death air force band led by McKinley and Gray. Style of band revived postwar and in 50s by Tex Beneke, Ralph Flanagan, Jerry Gray, Art Mooney, Ray Anthony, continued in 50s and 60s by Ray McKinley, in 60s and 70s by Buddy De Franco. Miller revival featured numerous LP reissues. 1954 movie THE GLENN MILLER STORY starred James Stewart in title role. Definitive biography, Glenn Miller and His Orchestra by George T. Simon, published 1974. Exhaustive bio-discography of civilian band by John Flower, Moonlight Serenade, published 1972. When music fans wax nostalgic on great era of big bands, Miller name usually leads the rest.

1270. MILLS BROTHERS vocal group

Three brothers constant members:

Herbert—born April 2, 1912, Piqua, Ohio

Harry—born August 19, 1913, Piqua, Ohio
Donald—born April 29, 1915, Piqua, Ohio

Successful vocal group early 30s into 70s. Occasional record hits. Besides three constant members, older brother John added vocal notes in string bass style and played guitar. As youngsters had WLW radio show in Cincinnati. To New York 1930. Own network broadcasts 1931, recorded, became popular. Theme Goodbye Blues. Along with singing, in early days group imitated band instruments in their numbers. Singing boasted smooth blend and relaxed style, remained virtually the same throughout career. In movie THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1932, Dick Powell films TWENTY MILLION SWEETHEARTS (1934) and BROADWAY GONDOLIER (1935). Late 1935 John died; father John Sr. took over bass-note singing, retired 1956, died 1967. Group toured U.S. and abroad; often on radio, including Bing Crosby shows. Biggest hit Paper Doll 1943. Later hits: The Glow-Worm, Lazy River, Opus One, Be My Life's Companion, Cab Driver. In 1943 movie musicals CHATTERBOX, HE'S MY GUY and REVEILLE WITH BEVERLY, in 1950 movie WHEN YOU'RE SMILING. Continued in 50s into 70s. Frequently on TV. After father retired, three worked as trio usually with guitar accompanist. Always smooth, highly professional unit with great stage presence and infectious personalities.

vo

(MARIA DO CARMO MIRANDA DA CUNHA)

Born February 9, 1909, near Lisbon, Portugal

Died August 5, 1955, California

Flamboyant, peppery entertainer in top movie musicals of 40s. Called The Brazilian Bombshell. Sang novelties in South American style with fast tempos embellished with gyrating hip movements, gestures and facial expressions. Famous for elaborately jeweled costumes and turbans decorated with artificial fruit. Spoke and sang with comical double-talking accent. Grew up in Rio de Janeiro, sang on radio there in 20s. Star in Brazil during 30s in night clubs and movies; also recorded. Played top clubs and theatres throughout South America. Lee Shubert signed her. Arrived U.S. May 1939, spoke little English. Exotic dress and style made her instant hit with press. Sensation in Broadway and road show STREETS OF PARIS (1939). Featured in important movie musical DOWN ARGENTINE WAY (1940). Others followed. Secondary but important roles; excellent comedienne. In Broadway show SONS O' FUN (1941-2). Movie career waned late 40s; turned to night clubs. Successful at top clubs in New York and Las Vegas, London's Palladium theatre. Continued night clubs in 50s, toured Cuba 1955. August 4 that year, while taping TV number with Jimmy Durante and Eddie Jackson, slipped and complained she was out of breath. Later that night collapsed, died of heart attack.

1288A. MONROE, BILL

g man vo cm lyr B

Born September 3, 1911, Rosine, Ky.

Country performer and leader of group Bill Monroe & The Blue Grass Boys. Described as Father of Bluegrass Music. Alumni went on to other bands or became leaders, helped popularize bluegrass music. Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs group members 1945-8. Member Chubby Wise created bluegrass fiddle style now widespread. Other alumni included banjoists Don Reno and Bill Keith, singer Mac Wiseman, bandleader Jimmy Martin. Monroe began professionally late 20s with brothers Charlie and Birch. Monroe Brothers on radio in 30s, including National Barn Dance from Chicago. Bill formed band 1938. On Nashville's Grand Ole Opry 1939 and often thereafter. Maintained traditional folk style with unamplified instruments. Good country singer with wide voice range, excellent on mandolin. By 1944 settled into now-standard instrumental format of bluegrass bands. Five-string banjo lead and background instrument. Fiddle, banjo and "dobro" guitar (using metal resonator to amplify sound) interwoven in vigorous, driving, strongly syncopated style. Monroe composed country songs; most famous Blue Moon of Kentucky and Kentucky Waltz. Others include Gotta Travel On, Cheyenne, Memories of Mother and Dad, Scotland, On the Kentucky Shore. Active in 50s and 60s with concerts, recordings, TV.

1289. MONROE, MARILYN vo
(NORMA JEAN BAKER or MORTENSON)*Born June 1, 1926, Los Angeles, Calif.
Died August 5, 1962, Brentwood, Calif.,
from overdose of sedatives*

Movie star of phenomenal popularity as sex symbol of 50s. Full, beautiful figure, blonde hair; spoke in breathless small voice. Primarily actress but performed song and dance numbers in important movies. Unhappy personal life despite success. Developed as actress and comedienne but felt insecure. Possibly in awe of important co-stars but invariably held her own with the best. At 5 a ward of Los Angeles County, lived in foster homes. Father (believed to be Edward Mortenson) disappeared years earlier. Mother Gladys Baker often in sanitariums. Marilyn attended Van Nuys High School awhile. At 16 married aircraft worker John Dougherty who went overseas during World War II. Divorced 1946. Worked in defense plant; beauty attracted attention, led to cover poses on men's magazines. Signed August 1946 with 20th Century-Fox, adopted name Marilyn Monroe. Received professional instruction, played bit parts in two movies. Signed with Columbia 1948; secondary singing role in movie LADIES OF THE CHORUS (1948). Columbia dropped option, Marilyn did modeling, including two later-famous nude calendar poses 1949.

1949-50 small roles for several studios. Under contract again with 20th Century-Fox beginning 1951, having attracted attention with walk-on part in THE ASPHALT JUNGLE. Quick stardom early 50s. Important early movie MONKEY BUSINESS (1952) with Cary Grant. First real starring movie NIAGARA (1953). Later 1953 coveted role in movie GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES, co-starred with Jane Russell, performed musical numbers. Henceforth starred in top movies with leading stars. 1959 film with music SOME LIKE IT HOT comedy classic. Marriages to baseball immortal Joe DiMaggio 1954 and playwright Arthur Miller 1956, both ending in divorce. In later career displays of temperament and bickering with studio widely considered as efforts to conceal shyness and insecurity. Lost role in movie SOMETHING'S GOT TO GIVE because of expensive delays caused by absences from set. Career seemed in jeopardy. World shocked when Marilyn found dead in Brentwood home on morning of August 5, 1962. Empty sedative bottle lay nearby; appeared she had tried to telephone someone from bed. DiMaggio handled funeral arrangements in dignified manner. Years later TV documentaries depicted life and legend. 1963 Fox issued film MARILYN, full-length compilation of clips from 15 movies narrated by Rock Hudson. Subject of biographies by Norman Mailer, Maurice Zolotow, Robert F. Slatzer, others.

Born October 7, 1911, Akron, Ohio Died May 21, 1973, Stuart, Fla.

Popular bandleader and singing star of 40s and 50s. Powerful, virile baritone with legitimate quality. Wisconsin state champion trumpet soloist at 15. Studied for opera at Carnegie Tech School of Music, played trumpet in dance bands during same period, finally full-time musician. With Austin Wylie 1933-4. Joined Larry Funk 1934-5 on trumpet and vocals. Settled in Boston mid-30s, hired by Jack Marshard to front small society combo. Studied voice at New England Conservatory of Music. Organized big band 1940; excellent arrangements and sound. Opened at Seiler's Ten Acres, Wayland, Mass., to good radio coverage. Adapted big voice to pop tunes but somewhat overpowering at times. Voice often part of comic imitators' acts in later years.

Theme Racing with the Moon. Early 1941 band at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, N.J. Later in year hit in New York at Hotel Commodore and Paramount Theatre. Good female vocalist Marilyn Duke. On 1941 radio show Penthouse Party. Through the years on own radio series, including popular show 1946 into early 50s. Big hit early 1945 There, I've Said It Again. Others theme, Ballerina, Riders in the Sky. As popularity grew as singer, featured band less, added vocal groups for background. Prolific recording 40s and 50s, mostly featuring own vocals. Monroe and band in movies MEET THE PEOPLE (1944) and CARNEGIE HALL (1947); Monroe starred in acting role in SINGING GUNS (1950). TV show 1950-1, occasional guest appearances later years. Mid-1953 abandoned regular band, continued as nominal leader on records and radio. Publicity man for RCA Victor 1955, advertised products on TV and in newspaper and magazine ads. TV show 1955. By late 50s recordings dwindled. Out of music several years, in 1964 resumed leading band semi-actively. Later years occasionally on TV shows with nostalgic theme. Semi-active early 70s. Composer or lyricist of songs and swing numbers Racing with the Moon, Something Sentimental, Boston Rocker, A Man's Best Friend Is His Horse, The Pleasure's All Mine, Let's Have a Cigarette Together, Caboose on a Slow Freight, Cry Cry Cry, Chocolate Choo Choo, I'm Easy to Get Along With, Rasputin's Tootin', Candy's Classy Classics, Singin' My Way Back Home, Mexicali Trail.

acc p o vo ar B

Born 1911, New Jersey

Talented, versatile musician despite blindness. Adept on accordion with beautifully-chorded, swinging style. Singing voice whisper-soft, jazz-influenced. Early experience on New Jersey radio. Later with brother Danny as The Sunshine Boys vocal duo on New York network show. Early 30s on WLW radio in Cincinnati. Left radio 1936 for arranging.

Led combo awhile, then it joined Frank Dailey band 1937. Mooney also arranged for Dailey. With Buddy Rogers band 1938 as pianist-vocalist-arranger. Late 30s and early 40s arranged for Paul Whiteman, The Modernaires, Vincent Lopez, Les Brown. 1941 wrote library for Frank Dailey. Led quartet 1943, integrated it with Russ Morgan band awhile. Quartet became prominent 1946-7 thanks to intricate, intimate style and plugs by Down Beat. Mooney accordion and vocalist; other group instruments were clarinet (Andy Fitzgerald), guitar and bass. Recordings failed to capture magic of group's club performances. Quartet broke up late 1949. Mooney worked as single, often as organist. Settled in Florida, played clubs there 50s and early 60s. In New York 1963-6, then returned to Florida.

1307. MORGAN, HELEN vo

Born 1900, Danville, Ill.

Died October 8, 1941, Chicago, Ill.

Sad, sweet-faced singer of melancholy ballads. Prominent in 20s and 30s. Prime example of popular image of torch singer. Favorite gimmick: sitting on top of piano while singing. As youngster to Chicago, worked at odd jobs, began singing in honkytonks. To New York, worked in small clubs. First big job at Billy Rose's Backstage Club. Played vaudeville, toured Europe. Began on Broadway in GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS OF 1925. Most memorable roles starring in SHOW BOAT (1928) and SWEET ADELIN (1929). Identified with show songs Bill and Why Was I Born?. Late 20s owned night club The House of Morgan. In several movies 1929-30 and in mid-30s. In 1936 toured with GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS OF 1936. Mid-30s on radio, including Broadway Melodies show 1934 and Ken Murray show 1936. Morgan revival sparked mid-50s with TV musical drama THE HELEN MORGAN STORY starring Polly Bergen, later with 1957 movie of same title starring Ann Blyth (with Gogi Grant's singing dubbed).

Born April 29, 1904, Scranton, Pa.

Died August 8, 1969, Las Vegas, Nev.

Bandleader especially popular in 30s and 40s. Versatile musician: capable trombonist and pianist, good arranger, composer of enduring songs. Worked in coal mines.

Pianist awhile in Scranton theatre. In 1921 with Scranton Sirens, top local group. To New York early 20s. Arranging for Victor Herbert and John Philip Sousa. With Paul Specht band, including European tour. Joined Jean Goldkette in Detroit 1926 as arranger; scored Dinah. Helped get top musicians for Goldkette. Musical director and arranger on Detroit radio. To New York late 20s and early 30s. Arrangements for Fletcher Henderson (Tidal Wave, Phantom Fantasia, Wild Party), Louis Armstrong, Chick Webb, Dorsey Brothers, Boswell Sisters. Conducted large orchestra at Broadway's Capitol Theatre. Wrote for Harlem's Cotton Club revues. Musical director for Brunswick Records awhile. Recorded with various groups, sometimes featured on vocals.

In 1934 with Freddy Martin as trombonist-arranger, developed muted wah-wah style later identified with him. With aid of Rudy Vallee formed hotel-style band, quickly caught on. Long stay at New York's Biltmore Hotel, then key engagements at Chicago's Edgewater Beach Hotel, Los Angeles' Biltmore Hotel and Berkeley's Claremont Hotel. Early radio coverage important. Wah-wah trombone featured sparingly but effectively, sang in distinctive soft voice. Excellent front man, free and easy. Composed theme Does Your Heart Beat for Me?. Network radio for Lever Brothers 1936. Used slogan Music in the Morgan Manner. 1937 through late 30s played Philip Morris radio show, others in 40s.

Renown grew as songwriter, featured hits with band: Somebody Else Is Taking My Place (1937, popular 1942); Flower of Dawn (1940); Please Think of Me and Sweet Eloise (1942); You're Nobody Till Somebody Loves You (1944; popularized in 50s by Dean Martin); So Tired (1948); California Orange Blossom (1949). Lesser compositions So Long; Don't Cry, Sweetheart; Whisper; Homespun; Tell Me You Love Me; Wise Guy; Goodnight, Little Angel; You Gorgeous Dancing Doll; It Only Takes a Minute; It's All Over but the Crying. Band kept working late 40s and 50s. Several hits: So Tired, Sunflower, Cruising Down the River, Forever and Ever. In 50s on TV; own show summer 1956 with singer Helen O'Connell. Morgan a natural for TV, unruffled by pressure. Band in 1951 movie DISC JOCKEY; Morgan effective in acting bit in important 1956 movie THE GREAT MAN. Part-time bandleader late 50s and 60s. Son carried on band in Las Vegas early 70s.

Born April 6, 1927, New York, N.Y.

Superb modern musician in all jazz styles. Versatile soloist, leader, arranger and composer. Top artist on baritone sax; great facility, solos warm and well-conceived. Important in jazz from late 40s into 70s. Grew up in Philadelphia. Early experience playing there; arranged for radio band. Toured with Tommy Tucker 1944. To New York 1946. With Gene Krupa, for whom wrote and arranged Disc Jockey Jump. With Miles Davis big band 1948, arranged Jeru, Boplicity, Venus de Milo, Godchild. With Elliot Lawrence 1950, for whom wrote and arranged Elevation. With Claude Thornhill as sideman-arranger. 1952 organized different quartet on west coast: no piano or guitar to provide chording. Personnel: Chet Baker (t), Chico Hamilton (d), Bob Whitlock (b), Mulligan (bs). Required great musicianship by all, complex, integrated playing by Mulligan and Baker. Personnel changed but continued to win renown in mid-50s. Baker emerged as new trumpet star. 1956-7 Mulligan played abroad at times, later led larger groups. Top modern arranger for many jazz groups, in demand as freelance sideman. Popular at jazz festivals in 50s and 60s. TV appearances. Took big band on European tour 1960, toured Japan 1964. In 1960 movies Jazz on a Summer's Day, The Rat Race, The Subterraneans. Active into 70s with all types of jazz groups including Dave Brubeck quartet. Great enthusiast and goodwill ambassador for jazz.

Born February 1, 1904, New York, N.Y. Died July 20, 1946, San Francisco, Calif.

Jazz trombonist noted for work with Duke Ellington particularly in 20s and 30s. Pioneered growl trombone sound made with plunger mute, similar to trumpet style of bandmates Bubber Miley and Cootie Williams. Distinctive style earned nickname "Tricky Sam," served as an Ellington trademark. Began early 20s with Cliff Jackson. With Frazier's Harmony Five 1923-4, with Jackson again and Elmer Snowden in mid-20s. Joined Ellington mid-1926, remained until stroke late 1945. Resumed with Ellington mid-1946, died on tour. Composed Saddest Tale, used by Ellington.

Born September 2, 1901, Boston, Mass.

Dixieland trumpet star over 50 years. Uncle of jazz pianists-brothers Marty and Teddy Napoleon. Founder and leader of Original Memphis Five around 1922. Most of career led groups. Strong lead trumpet, gutty solos. Improved steadily, maintained high level of musicianship throughout career. Other members of Original Memphis Five Jimmy Lytell (cl), Frank Signorelli (p), Jack Roth (d) and at intervals Miff Mole (tb). Prolific recording 1922-6, occasional personnel changes. Broke up around 1927-8. Napoleon freelanced in New York; with Sam Lanin, Red Nichols, Joe Venuti. Extensive recording in 20s. Radio late 20s to mid-30s in bands of B. A. Rolfe, Nat Shilkret, Leo Reisman. Later 30s led groups including big band at Brooklyn's Roseland and other locales 1938. Resumed studio and freelance 40s. Led band at Nick's in New York for years beginning 1949. Billed as Phil Napoleon & His Memphis Five, featured excellent jazzmen in tasteful, disciplined style. Napoleon's trumpet work held up through the years; good leader-organizer. Left New York mid-1956; semi-active in Miami. In 1966 opened club Phil Napoleon's Retreat outside Miami, led combo there. Active into 70s. Composer of Just Hot, At Dusk, Anything.

(ERNEST LORING NICHOLS)

Born May 8, 1905, Ogden, UtahDied June 28, 1965, Las Vegas, Nev.

Leading figure in jazz history as cornetist and leader of jazz groups beginning mid-20s. Solos not overpowering but palatable with good Bix Beiderbecke-style phrasing. Prolific recording 20s and early 30s helped popularize jazz. Billed as Red Nichols & His Five Pennies (suggested by Vic Berton), though later groups grew in size. Featured stars like Benny Goodman (cl), Jimmy Dorsey (cl), Tommy Dorsey (tb), Eddie Lang (g), Jack Teagarden (tb), Arthur Schutt (p), Vic Berton (d), Miff Mole (tb), Pee Wee Russell (cl), Joe Venuti (v), Adrian Rollini (bs), Carl Kress (g), Fud Livingston (ts cl), Manny Klein (t), Glenn Miller (tb), Babe Russin (ts), Gene Krupa (d), Bud Freeman (ts), Joe Sullivan (p), Dave Tough (d). At early age played locally in father's brass band. Attended Culver Military Academy one year late 1919-20. Returned to Ogden, played in vaudeville pit band. At 17 joined dance band The Syncopating Five in Piqua, Ohio. In 1923 group played Ambassador Hotel in Atlantic City as Royal Palms Orchestra. Late 1923-4 with Johnny Johnson band in New York area, led the band awhile at Pelham Heath Inn, Bronx 1924. In 1924 also with George Olsen, Vincent Lopez, Bennie Krueger. 1925-6 mostly in New York with Sam Lanin, Harry Reser, California Ramblers, Ross Gorman, Don Voorhees, others. Recorded with jazz groups and under own name. With Paul Whiteman spring 1927. Late 1927 with Don Voorhees formed staff band for Newark radio station WOR. Soon switched to new CBS network. Voorhees conducted same band in pit of Broadway show RAIN OR SHINE in 1928 without Nichols.

Later 1928 Nichols formed good band with Cass Hagan, toured to west coast. Led bands in Broadway shows JOHN MURRAY ANDERSON'S ALMANAC (1929), STRIKE UP THE BAND and GIRL CRAZY (1930), played in pit band of 9:15 REVUE (1930). Early 30s led band at New York's Hollywood Hotel and Park Central Hotel, toured other cities. In 1932 began using famous mournful theme Wail of the Winds (composed by Harry Warren). Led big band in sweet-swing style mid-30s. On radio show College Prom starring Ruth Etting 1935-6, on Frank Parker show 1936. Faded awhile, came back late 30s with big swing band featuring vocalist Bill Darnell, Billy Maxted's arrangements, dixieland combo within band. Spring 1942 retired to do defense work in California. Came back with Glen Gray spring 1944, later in year led combo. Key engagements at Hayward Hotel and El Morocco Club in Los Angeles. At Hangover Club in San Francisco 1948-51.

Bass sax star Joe Rushton a stalwart with Nichols in 50s and 60s, added depth to combo. Nichols freelanced on records with singers Bing Crosby, Julia Lee, Phil Harris, Kay Starr, others. Led combo on west coast during 50s; long run at Marineland in Los Angeles. 1959 movie THE FIVE PENNIES based on Red's life, Danny Kaye portraying Nichols. Red played cornet on soundtrack, got career boost, played on TV, served as subject of This Is Your Life show. In 1959 movie THE GENE KRUPA STORY. Led group in 60s; tours abroad 1960 and 1964. Active until death from heart attack during booking at Top of the Mint in Las Vegas. Composed about 20 jazz numbers, mostly performed by own groups.

1364. NOBLE, RAY p ar cm B

Born December 17, 1903, near London, England

Leader of outstanding English and U.S.
dance bands of impeccable musicianship and taste, deep ensemble sound, strong beat, sweet-swing style. Arrangements superior, many by Noble (who played piano at times). Star vocalist Al Bowlly widely considered best singer of 30s. Noble attended Cambridge; extensive musical training. Musical director of HMV Records in England 1929-34. Earliest records, billed as New Mayfair Orchestra, ordinary, mostly featured now-obscure English show and novelty tunes. Bowllly began recording with Noble late 1930. Band developed, used Noble's name, recorded U.S. song hits and liting English tunes. Featured occasional jazz solos by Freddy Gardner (as), Max Goldberg (t), Nat Gonella (t), Lew Davis (tb). Recordings prolific, many issued in U.S. Favorites: Goodnight Sweetheart, (theme) The Very Thought of You, By the Fireside, Got a Date with an Angel, Who Walks In When I Walk Out?. Early 30s Noble noted composer. Leading songs Goodnight Sweetheart and I Found You (1931); By the Fireside (1932); Love Is the Sweetest Thing and What More Can I Ask? (1933); The Very Thought of You, Love Locked Out and It's All Forgotten Now (1934); Why Stars Come Out at Night (1935); If You Love Me and The Touch of Your Lips (1936); I Hadn't Anyone Till You, You That I Loved and You're So Desirable (1938). Most notable instrumentals Cherokee (1938) and Seminole (1940).

Noble to U.S. late 1934, brought Bowllly and drummer-manager Bill Harty. Great musicians assembled by Glenn Miller for Noble's U.S. band: Miller (tb ar), Pee Wee Erwin (t), Charlie Spivak (t), Sterling Bose (t), Will Bradley (tb), Milt Yaner (as), Johnny Mince (cl), Bud Freeman (ts), Claude Thornhill (p), George Van Eps (g). Recorded for Victor. Key engagement New York's Rainbow Room. On show Magic Key of Radio with Lanny Ross early 1936, Refreshment Time later 1936. Late 30s on Burns & Allen show displayed flair for comedy as dim-witted Englishman. In 1940 on Burns & Allen show and Alec Templeton Time. Beginning 1941 into 50s on Edgar Bergen & Charlie McCarthy show.

Bowllly returned to England late 1936. Noble broke up band early 1937, later reorganized. Later vocalists Howard Phillips, Larry Stewart, Snooky Lanson. 1940-1 band featured Harry Johnson on lead and jazz trumpet. Noble especially proud of late 30s-early 40s band, though recordings not representative. Record hits of 40s By the Light of the Silv'ry Moon, It Might as Well Be Spring, The Wish That I Wish Tonight. Band backed singer Buddy Clark on hit records I'll Dance at Your Wedding and Linda. Late 40s band mostly on radio, occasional dance engagements and records. Noble retired around mid-50s, spent time in England, returned to U.S. Noble and band in movies BIG BROADCAST OF 1936 (1935), A DAMSEL IN DISTRESS (1937), HERE WE GO AGAIN (1942), LAKE PLACID SERENADE (1945). Noble pianist in OUT OF THIS WORLD (1945). Major contributions: most songs all-time standards; British and early U.S. records acme of 30s dance music.

1366B. NORTH, ALEX cm ar p B
 Born December 4, 1910, Chester, Pa.

Composer-arranger of movie background music 50s into 70s. Educated at Curtis Institute, Juilliard, Moscow Conservatory. Scores for Federal Theatre Project late 30s, later for dozens of government films. Composed Revue for Clarinet, Orchestra for Benny Goodman. Taught at Sarah Lawrence, Briarcliff, Finch. Incidental music for play DEATH OF A SALESMAN (1949) led to important job composing-arranging for movie A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE (1951); innovative, successful score simulated jazz in classical structure. Acclaimed score for VIVA ZAPATA! (1952) established movie career. Many important movies of 50s and 60s, including heralded CLEOPATRA (1963) and WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF? (1966). Good pop song Who's Afraid? from latter; hit song Unchained Melody from movie UNCHAINED (1955). Several movie title songs include The Long Hot Summer, I'll Cry Tomorrow. Music for TV, notably Playhouse 90 theme and score for documentary AFRICA (1967). Serious works include Rhapsody for Orchestra, Piano; Morning Star (cantata); Mal de Siecle (jazz ballet); Holiday Set.

1367. NORVO, RED vb xyl mar p cm B (KENNETH NORVILLE)

Born March 31, 1908, Beardstown, Ill.
 Important jazz figure as soloist and leader mid-20s into 70s. Pioneer on jazz xylophone, later took up vibraphone. Crisp, inventive soloist with impeccable swing and exquisite taste. Leader of advanced big band in middle and late 30s featuring brilliant Eddie Sauter arrangements. Though swing-school musician, Norvo blended easily into progressive styles in mid-40s. Good showman. Mostly self-taught, as youth switched from piano to xylophone. At 17 led marimba group The Collegians on vaudeville tour. With Paul Ash at Chicago's Oriental Theatre 1926, later toured as vaudeville solo act. Led first band in Milwaukee 1928. In Chicago later 1928-30 as radio staff musician with Victor Young. Early 30s with Paul Whiteman, married featured singer Mildred Bailey. Freelanced in New York 1934-5, led combo at Famous Door late 1935. Augmented to big band spring 1936, featured vocalist Bailey, billed as Mr. and Mrs. Swing. Theme Mr. and Mrs. Swing. Subtle swing charted by Sauter arrangements, admired by musicians. Norvo solos prominent, provided unique sound. Band's outstanding jazzmen Herbie Haymer (ts), Hank D'Amico (cl), Stew Pletcher (t), George Wettling (d). Disbanded mid-1939, led bands of varying sizes in 40s, usually without wife. Early 40s switched to vibes. On Mildred Bailey radio show 1944. Late 1944-5 with Benny Goodman Quintet in Broadway musical SEVEN LIVELY ARTS and with Sextet when Goodman reorganized band 1945. Left in December to join Woody Herman for a year as featured soloist and assistant leader. Freelanced and led group on west coast 1947-8. To New York 1949. Beginning 1950 mostly led trio, sometimes enlarged it. Played subtle modern jazz that required great technique. Early sidemen Tal Farlow (g) and Charlie Mingus (b), later Jimmy Raney (g) and Red Mitchell (b). Personnel changed through the years. Norvo toured Europe 1954, Australia 1956, Europe 1959 with Benny Goodman, Europe 1968 as soloist. Occasionally on TV in 50s and 60s. During 60s mostly on west coast and in Las Vegas; with singer Mavis Rivers on many jobs. Jobbed late 60s with George Wein combo, Newport All-Stars. Active into 70s, always improving. Played mostly in Las Vegas. Featured on 1974 Benny Goodman TV special. Composer or co-composer of The Night Is Blue; Knockin' on Wood; Easy on the Eyes; Just a Mood; Sunrise Blues; Hole in the Wall; Tomboy; Dance of the Octopus; Bughouse; Blues in E Flat; Porsche; Rhee! Oh Rhee!; Decca Stomp; Jiving the Jeep; Jump Jump's Here; Red's Stuff; Band in Boston; I Can Read Between the Lines.

1377. O'CONNELL, HELEN vo

Born May 23, 1920, Lima, Ohio

Popular vocalist with Jimmy Dorsey 1939-43. Sometimes sang in part-talking style; emphasized phrasing, feeling and personality. Later adopted more orthodox style. Educated in Toledo, as youngster sang on radio there. Mid-30s sang with Jimmy Richards and Austin Wylie bands in midwest. With Larry Funk 1938-9, hired by Jimmy Dorsey early 1939. She and Bob Eberly became ultimate dance-band male-female singing pair. Early 40s both sang on Dorsey hits Amapola, Green Eyes, Yours, Time Was, Tangerine. Helen with Dorsey band on radio show Your Happy Birthday first half 1941, in movies THE FLEET'S IN (1942) and I DOOD IT (1943). Left Dorsey early 1943, sang awhile on Lower Basin Street radio show. Remaining 40s mostly out of show business; in movie THE FABULOUS DORSEYS (1947). Came back early 50s on TV and records, often with Frank DeVol orchestra. Beauty, personality and showmanship ideal for TV. In 1953 on TV show with Bob Eberly and Ray Anthony band, in 1956 co-starred with Russ Morgan. Later 50s on TV interview show and Today show. Active 60s on various TV shows, including nostalgic shows featuring artists of big-band era. Played nightclubs in 70s.

1378. O'CONNOR, DONALD vo cm

Born August 30, 1925, Chicago, Ill.

Multi-talented star of 40s and 50s movies. Played youthful roles well into manhood. Good singer, dancer, comedian and actor. At early age in family vaudeville act. Sensation in 1938 movie SING YOU SINNERS with Bing Crosby and Fred MacMurray; featured in movie's hit Small Fry. Several movies followed but career faded in growing-up years. Lean period 1940-1, returned to vaudeville with brother and sister; funny and polished act. Bit parts in early 40s low-budget Universal musicals; talent shone through, led to larger roles and eventual stardom in low-budget musicals mid-40s. Late 40s and 50s in better movies, some for other studios. Outstanding in important MGM musical SINGIN' IN THE RAIN (1952). Other top movies ARE YOU WITH IT? (1948); YES, SIR, THAT'S MY BABY (1949); WALKING MY BABY BACK HOME, CALL ME MADAM and I LOVE MELVIN (1953); THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS (1954); ANYTHING GOES (1956); THE BUSTER KEATON STORY (1957). Also known for film series featuring Francis the "talking" mule. On TV in 50s and 60s, including own variety series. Collaborated with actor Sidney Miller composing theatrical patter songs on the spot in TV skits. Played night clubs later years after movie activities lessened. Active early 70s with road work and occasional TV appearances.

Born c. 1890, possibly Chicago, Ill.

Died April 29, 1970, Chicago, Ill.

Active as leader, organizer and booker. Early acquaintance with Gennett Records personnel led to use of name as musical director of 1922 recordings by Friars Society Orchestra (later New Orleans Rhythm Kings). Other Gennett records same year listed as Husk O'Hare band, personnel unknown. Late 1924 took over combo called Blue Friars, changed name to O'Hare's Red Dragons, later Husk O'Hare's Wolverines. Group, formed from musicians at Chicago's Austin High, boasted future greats Frank Teschemacher (cl), Jimmy McPartland (c), Dick McPartland (bn), Bud Freeman (ts), Dave Tough (d), Jimmy Lannigan (p). Floyd O'Brien (tb) and Dave North (p) added; Lannigan switched to bass. O'Hare booked jobs and radio time for group into 1926. Led other bands late 20s and 30s mostly in Chicago and midwest. Led band in Pittsburgh 1934, Baltimore 1935-6. Retired from show business 1941, became manufacturer-distributor in Chicago, operated novelty T-shirt firm.

1383. OLIVER, KING c cm B (JOSEPH OLIVER)

Born May 11, 1885, possibly New Orleans, La.

Died April 8, 1938, Savannah, Ga.

Pioneer jazz great as cornetist and band-leader. Composer of important jazz standards. Early bands close-knit and disciplined, dominated by his cornet. Outstanding balance and control for early period. Oliver playing influenced contemporaries. At early age played in New Orleans parades and funerals. Important dance band work with Kid Ory around 1914, again 1917-18. Also with Richard M. Jones, own band. To Chicago 1918, with Bill Johnson and Lawrence Duhé bands. Led band in Chicago 1920-1 mostly at Dreamland Cafe. Mid-1921 took band to west coast, mostly in San Francisco. Returned to old Chicago spot (now Lincoln Gardens) mid-1922 to late 1924, with intervals touring. Young cornetist Louis Armstrong joined at start of engagement. Recording began 1923. When Lincoln Gardens burned late 1924, Oliver disbanded. Played cornet for Dave Peyton at Plantation Cafe several months, later led band there 1925-7. Early 1927 toured various locales including Milwaukee, Detroit, St. Louis, New York. Erred in turning down offer to play New York's new Cotton Club. Duke Ellington took job, won prominence with club's popularity and radio coverage.

Beginning late 1927 Oliver had no band for almost three years. Filled contract with Vocalion-Brunswick with top freelance jazzmen. Late 1928 signed with Victor, used larger band and quieter jazz style. Much arranging by trumpeter-nephew Dave Nelson. Oliver led band on tour June to October 1930 mostly in midwest, then disbanded. Inactive after end of Victor contract. Later 1931 formed new, younger band, toured south and southwest. Aged prematurely, had trouble with teeth, difficulty fitting in with changing personnel, financial woes. By mid-30s could hardly play, had to abandon music. Last years at menial jobs in Savannah. Most famous composition Dippermouth Blues, also called Sugarfoot Stomp. Other compositions Snag It, West End Blues, Chimes Blues, Doctor Jazz, Canal Street Blues, Riverside Blues (or Jazzin' Babies Blues).

1384. OLIVER, SY t vo ar cm B (MELVIN JAMES OLIVER)

Born December 17, 1910, Battle Creek, Mich.

Versatile musician, most important as arranger with bands of Jimmie Lunceford in 30s, Tommy Dorsey in 40s. Arranged in powerful two-beat style that produced infectious sound. Ranks with Fletcher Henderson as most influential and imitated big-band arranger. Grew up in Zanesville, Ohio. Played trumpet professionally while in high school. Late 20s with Zach Whyte, mostly on tour. Settled in Columbus, jobbed and taught music.

With Alphonso Trent around 1932. Worked at arranging, self-taught. Joined Lunceford late 1933 as sideman-arranger, did novelty vocals, sang with Lunceford Trio, remained till mid-1939. Arrangements chiefly responsible for band's unique style. Arrangements of Margie, Dream of You, My Blue Heaven, Organ Grinder's Swing, For Dancers Only, Cheatin' on Me The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down, 'Tain't What You Do and Ain't She Sweet? produced hits. Joined Dorsey mid-1939, composed and arranged many of band's leading numbers including Easy Does It, Opus No. 1, Yes Indeed and Well, Git It!. Occasionally featured on vocals with Dorsey. Played little trumpet after Lunceford. Military service 1943-5 as bandmaster. After discharge wrote for Dorsey, freelanced. Led big band 1946-7 with great jazz personnel. In 50s and 60s continued arranging, led bands on records. Musical director awhile for Decca, later Bethlehem Records. Extensive arranging for Peggy Lee, Johnny Carson TV show, Ray Bolger, Frank Sinatra, Jackie Gleason, Charles Aznavour, Jo Stafford, Louis Armstrong, Chubby Checker, Ella Fitzgerald, the Buffalo Symphony, the Andrews Sisters, the McGuire Sisters, the Mills Brothers, Della Reese, Sammy Davis, Jr., Arthur Prysock, Bing Crosby. Musical director in Paris 1968. Early 70s toured with medium-sized band, enthusiastically received. Toured England 1974 with Tommy Dorsey revival band led by Warren Covington. Led big band for New York Jazz Repertory Company 1974 in several Carnegie Hall concerts. Composer of Stomp It Off, Dream of You, For Dancers Only, Easy Does It, Swing High, Opus No. 1, Losers Weepers, 'Tain't What You Do, Yes Indeed, Blue Blazes, Serenade to the Spot, Because You're You, Another One of Them Things, Well, Git It!, Swingin' Uptown, The Melody Man, I Wanna Hear Swing Songs, Make Me Know It.

dB

Born March 18, 1893, Portland, Ore.
Died March 18, 1971, Paramus, N.J.

Bandleader particularly popular during 20s and early 30s. Featured vocalist-wife Ethel Shutta and male vocalist Fran Frey. Consistent sweet style ideal for hotels. Attended University of Michigan, had band there. In 1919 led band in Portland, by 1923 well-known on west coast. Work with entertainer Fanny Brice led to stage work for impresario Flo Ziegfeld. First big break in hit Broadway musical KID BOOTS (1924), later in year ZIEGFELD FOLLIES OF 1924. In hit musical SUNNY (1925); 1925 hit record Who? from show thereafter associated song with Olsen. In hit shows GOOD NEWS (1927) and WHOOPEE (1928), early sound movies HAPPY DAYS and WHOOPEE (1930). Between shows played New York clubs and hotels. Olsen married Ethel Shutta 1926, featured her through the years. Recorded leading show and popular tunes late 20s and early 30s. Many radio appearances included Jack Pearl show 1934, Tim & Irene show 1938, own show 1936 featuring wife. In 30s on west coast. By mid-30s popularity and recording waned. Olsen took over Orville Knapp band 1936 shortly after Knapp's death. World War II entertained U.S. troops. Late 30s and 40s band dated. Olsen retired as bandleader 1951, later had restaurant in Paramus, N.J. that featured tapes of his old records.

1391. OSBORNE, WILL vo cm d B (WILLIAM OLIPHANT)

✓ Born November 25, 1906, Toronto, Canada

Suave, personable bandleader popular particularly in 30s. Did all vocals with early band in smooth, melodious voice along Rudy Vallee lines though stronger. Led good hotel-style band. Led combo in New York mid-20s, played drums. By 1930 band large, played top spots. Osborne imitated and feuded with Vallee. Extensive recording during 30s. Late 30s changed band style to sweet-swing, added gimmick of glissing trombones, billed band as Will Osborne & His Slide Music. Added distinctive four-bar vamp before each vocal. Continued Slide Music into 1940. Featured other band singers including manager-sideman Dick "Stinky" Rogers. Theme The Gentleman Awaits; Osborne co-composer. Band in 1941 movie BLUES IN THE NIGHT. Late 1940 Osborne retired awhile, turned band over to Rogers. Came back with more orthodox band. In Abbott & Costello movie IN SOCIETY and on team's radio show 1945. Continued band later 40s and 50s, mostly on west coast. Ran Los Angeles talent agency. Collaborated on beautiful 1930 songs On a Blue and Moonless Night and Beside an Open Fireplace. Co-composer of 1940 novelty song hits Between 18th and 19th on Chestnut Street and Wouldst Could I But Kiss Thy Hand, Oh Babe. Other songs Imagine, Roses Are Forget-Me-Nots, Just Think of Me Sometime; instrumentals Pompton Turnpike and Missouri Scrambler.

1397. PAGE, WALTER b tu B

Born February 9, 1900, Gallatin, Mo. Died December 20, 1957, New York, N.Y.

Bassist best known as member of Count Basie's celebrated rhythm section of late 30s and 40s. Played tuba early in career, switched to string bass. At 18 to Kansas City, soon joined leading band of Bennie Moten 1918-23. Left to tour in band with Billy King's Road Show, which closed in Oklahoma City 1925. Took over band, Walter Page's Original Blue Devils; based in Oklahoma City 1925-31. Excellent personnel at times included Hot Lips Page (t), Buster Smith (as), Basie (p), Jimmy Rushing (vo). In 1931 turned band over to trumpeter James Simpson, returned to Kansas City. Freelanced, rejoined Moten 1931-4. Worked in St. Louis mid-30s; stint with Jeter-Pillars band. With Basie combo in Kansas City around late 1935-6. With Basie in Chicago and New York late 1936, stayed as combo grew to large swing band. With Freddie Green (g), Jo Jones (d) and Basie (p) formed all-time great rhythm section. Left Basie fall 1942, jobbed in New York several years. With Jesse Price in Joplin, Mo. With Basie 1946-8, Hot Lips Page awhile 1949. Early 50s freelanced in New York, toured with Jimmy Rushing. Mid-50s with dixieland stars Eddie Condon, Wild Bill Davison, Jimmy McPartland. With Roy Eldridge late 1956. Active until pneumonia caused death.

1405. PARKER, CHARLIE as cm B (nicknamed Yardbird or Bird)

✓ Born August 29, 1920, Kansas City, Mo. Died March 12, 1955, New York, N.Y.

Jazz giant, chief founder of bop or progressive jazz. Distinctive alto sax tone with little vibrato, driving style, great facility. Inventive patterns and solo lines main inspiration for bop style, widely copied from bop's formative years on. Influenced early by altoist Buster Smith in Kansas City; with Smith's band summer 1938. With Jay McShann off and on in late 30s; period with Harlan Leonard. While with McShann and in jam sessions at Minton's club in Harlem early 40s, Parker experimented with new ideas. Discovered revolutionary bop style by using higher interval of a chord as a melody line, with related changes. Style enabled Parker and others to use chords of well-known standards, add original melody lines and become composers of original numbers that never sounded like melodies from which they were adopted. Leader with Parker in developing early bop: trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie. Others Charlie Christian (g), Thelonious Monk (p), Kenny Clarke (d)—Lester Young having laid groundwork with cool tone and clean solo lines on tenor sax with Count Basie band late 30s.

During 1942-4 Parker with Noble Sissle, Earl Hines, Cootie Williams, Andy Kirk, Carroll Dickerson. Toured awhile 1944 with Billy Eckstine band, proving ground for bop musicians. After recording ban ended mid-40s, Parker cut many combo records that spread new style. Based in New York, became legend in his own time. To Los Angeles late 1945. Drug addiction caused breakdown mid-1946; several months in Camarillo State Hospital. Came back 1947 to lead combo, worked with Jazz at the Philharmonic. Played Paris 1949, Scandinavia 1950. Broke new ground 1950 recording with strings and woodwinds. In 50s mostly single backed by house combos. Health deteriorated, causing periods of inactivity. Work became erratic. Death at 34 shocked jazz world, fed legend. Jazz compositions included Bloomdido, Confirmation, Yardbird Suite, Now's the Time, Relaxin' at Camarillo, Anthropology, Bird Lore. Subject of celebrated 1973 Ross Russell biography Bird Lives! The High Life and Hard Times of Charlie (Yardbird) Parker.

(ANTONIO PESTRITTO)

*Born October 26, 1907, Middletown, Conn.
 Died October 31, 1969, Old Lyme, Conn.*

Sideman-vocalist with Artie Shaw late 30s, bandleader 40s and 50s. Warm, singing tone on tenor sax, quietly urgent swing style. Novelty and rhythm vocals in Louis Armstrong style with good phrasing. Began in local bands. First big job with Irving Aaronson 1928-30; long engagements in Hollywood. With Austin Wylie awhile around late 1930-1. Led band in Hartford 1931-4. 1934-6 with Vincent Lopez, Smith Ballew, Joe Venuti. In 1936 joined Artie Shaw's string-dominated orchestra, stayed when Shaw reorganized into conventional swing band. Key man in band's rise. Early featured tenor sax soloist; later George Auld took over most hot work. Fame from rhythm vocals. When Shaw abandoned band late 1939, Pastor formed band. Excellent ensemble sound, some Shaw-type swing arrangements by Shaw-Pastor guitarist Al Avola. Distinctive theme Blossoms. John McAfee good lead sax, romantic baritone vocals. Band's early hits Brother Bill, Let's Do It and Paradiddle Joe (featuring drummer Johnny Morris). Later 40s band modernized somewhat, featured arrangements by Ralph Flanagan, Budd Johnson, Walter Fuller. Tony's younger brother Sal featured trumpet. Clooney Sisters (Rosemary and Betty) featured on vocals. But band and singers leaned toward novelties and mediocre material, seldom displayed band's excellent musicianship. Pastor bandleader through 50s. During 60s mostly act in night clubs, usually with sons Guy and Tony Jr.

1422. PELL, DAVE ts cl as bs B

Born February 26, 1925, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Versatile jazzman of impeccable musicianship on reeds. Facile soloist, beautiful tone, modern style. Attained prominence as tenor saxist in Les Brown band. Early 40s with Bob Astor and Bobby Sherwood. With Tony Pastor 1944-5. With Bob Crosby's Ford Show on radio two years. Freelanced, led combos on west coast. Joined Brown late 1947, became band's leading soloist. Occasionally played clarinet and baritone sax. Left Brown 1955, formed octet in California. About two dozen octet LPs 1958-60 featured Brown sidemen and alumni, swinging, tightly knit arrangements, good soloists, slick and tasty modern jazz. Pell also recorded big band LPs simulating styles of famous bands; two featured masterful Pell clarinet tributes to clarinetists Benny Goodman and Artie Shaw. A&R man for Liberty Records in 60s, occasionally led groups on records and special dates. Jobbed in Los Angeles 1974.

Born June 22, 1903, Chicago, Ill.

Died June 7, 1971, Palm Springs, Calif.; hanged himself

Leader of all-star bands in 20s and 30s admired by jazz cognoscenti but no great commercial success. Good drummer particularly in dixieland combos. Early 20s drummed in Chicago; first important job with New Orleans Rhythm Kings at Friars Inn. With Harry Bastin 1923-4 at Venice Ballroom in Los Angeles, then returned to Chicago. Late 1924-5 took over band at Venice Ballroom, lined up good personnel, brought band to Chicago early 1926. Late 20s led band there, Atlantic City, New York. Began recording fall 1926; mostly pops, used star soloists Benny Goodman (cl), Jack Teagarden (tb), Glenn Miller (tb ar), Jimmy McPartland (c), Bud Freeman (ts), Harry Goodman (b), Fud Livingston (ts). Pollack played drums, occasionally sang. Sometimes rated best white band of 20s.

Late 1928-9 band in Broadway musical HELLO DADDY with Pollack conducting and Ray Bauduc on drums.

Early 30s band mostly in Chicago. Personnel included Charlie Teagarden (t), Matty Matlock (cl), Babe Russin (ts), Charlie Spivak (t), Joe Harris (tb), Sterling Bose (t), Gil Rodin (as), Eddie Miller (ts cl), Nappy Lamare (g), Bauduc (d), Yank Lawson (t), Deane Kincaide (ts ar). Disbanded December 1934 in Los Angeles. Rodin organized nucleus to job around, early 1935 headed cooperative band fronted by singer Bob Crosby. Pollack came back 1936 with probably best band. Featured swing arrangements and jazz stars Harry James (t), Irving Fazola (cl), Dave Matthews (ts), Bruce Squires (tb), with Muggsy Spanier (t) and Ted Vesely (tb) joining 1937. Pollack lost most of these later but continued band. Theme Song of the Islands. Best vocalists Peggy Mann, Frances Hunt, Paula Gayle. On Joe Penner radio show 1938-9. In 1942 Pollack organized band for comedian Chico Marx, played theatre tour. Opened talent agency in Hollywood 1943. In 1945 had interest in Jewel Records. Inactive as bandleader much of 40s. During dixieland revival led all-star combos on west coast 1949 into 50s. In 1956 movie THE BENNY GOODMAN STORY. During 60s mostly away from music, ran restaurant in Palm Springs, Calif. Co-composer of novelty Peckin' and jazz classic Tin Roof Blues (latter adapted as popular song Make Love to Me in 1954).

Born September 27, 1924, New York, N.Y.

Died August 1, 1966

Important bop pianist. Played dynamic physical style, constantly striving for new ideas and patterns, highly individualistic. Began in New York area around 1940, developed in early bop sessions at Minton's club in Harlem. With Cootie Williams 1943-4. Mid-40s active in bop with Dizzy Gillespie, Allen Eager, Don Byas, others. Nervous ailments and narcotics curtailed career long periods late 40s and early 50s. Mostly led trio in 50s. Worked mostly in Paris 1959-64; illness halted playing 1963-4. To U.S. August 1964, mostly sick, died 1966. Later playing deteriorated. Composer of jazz numbers, notably Budo.

vo

Born November 14, 1904, Mountain View, Ark.

Died January 3, 1963

Popular singing star of movies during 30s. Later turned to tough-guy roles in non-musicals. Handsome and personable, pleasant tenor voice with smooth delivery. Films introduced hit songs 42nd Street; Shuffle Off to Buffalo; Shadow Waltz; By a Waterfall; Honeymoon Hotel; I Only Have Eyes for You; Happiness Ahead; Pop! Goes Your Heart; Flirtation Walk; I'll String Along with You; Lulu's Back in Town; Lullaby of Broadway; Thanks a Million; I Know Now; With Plenty of Money and You; many more. Most songs by top movie composing teams Harry Warren & Al Dubin, Allie Wrubel & Mort Dixon, Harold Arlen & E. Y. Harburg, Sammy Fain & Irving Kahal, Richard Whiting & Johnny Mercer. Late 20s sang with Charlie Davis and other bands mostly in midwest, made obscure recordings. Early 30s worked midwest theatre circuit as M.C.-singer. Stint at Circle

Theatre, Indianapolis. Minor parts in movies STREET SCENE (1931), BLESSED EVENT and TOO BUSY TO WORK (1932), THE KING'S VACATION (1933).

As virtual unknown burst upon screen in big movie musical 42ND STREET spring 1933. Clicked with excellent singing, natural charm. Another newcomer, dancer Ruby Keeler, also sensation in same movie. She and Powell co-starred in other top movie musicals GOLD DIGGERS OF 1933 and FOOTLIGHT PARADE (1933), DAMES and FLIRTATION WALK (1934), SHIPMATES FOREVER (1935), COLLEEN (1936). Powell in other musicals with various female leads and entertainers. Co-starred with wife Joan Blondell in several movies. Active on radio 30s and 40s. Starred on Old Gold radio show with Ted Fio Rito band 1934, Hollywood Hotel (with Frances Langford) late 1934-7 (with Fio Rito awhile, later Raymond Paige orchestra). Late 1937-8 Powell show Your Hollywood Party launched comedian Bob Hope to stardom. Other radio shows Tuesday Night Party 1939, American Cruise (with Frances Langford) 1941, Dick Powell Serenade 1942-3. Mid-40s to early 50s mystery and private-eye radio shows, including Richard Diamond—Private Detective. Musical career waned by late 30s; last two big musicals VARSETY SHOW (1937) and HOLLYWOOD HOTEL (1938). Early 40s in several lesser musicals. In better movies HAPPY-GO-LUCKY (1943) and MEET THE PEOPLE (1944) singing limited.

Powell then turned to hard-boiled roles in crime and detective movies, comedy occasionally. New roles as successful as previous singing career. Top star into early 50s, then director. Entered TV early 50s; important performer-director-producer. He and later wife June Allyson in separate TV series. Active nearly until death 1963 from cancer. Well-liked performer, never returned to singing despite wishes of many fans.

(ALFRED PAOLELLA)

Born March 1, c. 1905-6, Oakland, Calif.

Leader of excellent sweet-swing band of 40s. Boasted outstanding arrangements, full ensemble sound, capable sidemen. Successful composer of popular songs and swing numbers. Educated at San Francisco Conservatory. Sideman with Ray West on west coast. With Abe Lyman 1926-34 on banjo and guitar, sang in band trio. Executive for Lyman's radio shows. Mid-30s began composing; 1935 hit Boots and Saddle. Collaborated with songwriters Walter Samuels and Leonard Whitcup. During career had two music publishing companies. Formed first band fall 1939, New York debut at Famous Door. Band folded mid-1940 despite good personnel and swing. Another good band early 1941 featured vocalist Ruth Gaylor. Late in year fire destroyed band's spot, Rustic Cabin in New Jersey, and band's instruments. Excellent band early 1942 featured clarinetist Irving Fazola, vocalists Peggy Mann and Tommy Taylor. Never attained deserved success. Prison sentence 1945-6 for draft evasion. Later 40s resumed composing. Mid-1950 led big band with strings and sweet arrangements; moderately successful awhile. Composed swing numbers featured by his early 40s band including Flea on a Spree, The Sphinx and Teddy Bear Boogie.

Born December 7, 1911, New Orleans, La.

Jazz trumpeter, singer, leader of hot combo early in career. Later success leading combo specializing in comedy and showmanship mixed with jazz. Played traditional New Orleans trumpet, performed rhythm and novelty vocals well in Louis Armstrong style. Able front man. Younger brother of trumpeter Leon Prima. As teenager led combo in local clubs, worked in theatre band. Mid-30s gained prominence leading group on 52nd Street in New York and recording. Noticed in 1936 Bing Crosby movie RHYTHM ON THE RANGE, which also launched comedienne-singer Martha Raye, previously with Prima in clubs. Both on Rudy Vallee radio show. Prima wrote song hit Sing, Sing, Sing: pop song in 1936, gradually built on by Benny Goodman to become basis for famed nine-minute jazz classic in 1937. With band in movies MANHATTAN MERRY-GO-ROUND and YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING (1937), START CHEERING (1938). During 30s featured jazz; outstanding sidemen at times included Georg Brunis (tb), Pee Wee Russell (cl), Eddie Miller (ts), George Van Eps (g), Nappy Lamare (g), Ray Bauduc (d), Claude Thornhill (p). Led big band 1936, again in 40s. Theme Way Down Yonder in New Orleans. Concentrated on pops and novelties. Known for zany lyrics on Italian songs. Composed Robin Hood, popular 1944 and featured by his band. Around 1943-4 band unfolded good Stan Kenton-influenced arrangements; cf. recordings on Hit. Co-composer of big 1946 hit A Sunday Kind of Love. Band scored with novelty hit Civilization in 1947.

In 50s and 60s Prima fronted combo featuring talented showman Sam Butera on tenor sax and occasional vocals. Prima's wife Keely Smith big hit on vocals, clowning poker-face with Prima. Arrangements often fast and intricate, required good musicianship. Group's showmanship kept it in demand; often in Las Vegas. Louis and Keely frequently on TV, sometimes with band. They starred in movie HEY BOY! HEY GIRL! (1959). After divorce, other female singers featured. Butera featured more, on vocals and gutty sax. He and combo called Sam Butera & the Witnesses. Prima active into 70s. Other compositions included Sing a Spell, Little Boy Blew His Top, Marguerita, Bridget O'Brien, Boogie in Chicago, It's the Rhythm in Me, Boogie in the Bronx, New Aulins.

1482. QUINTET OF THE HOT CLUB OF FRANCE

Jazz group formed 1934 under auspices of Hot Club of France. Recordings won international acclaim. Stars Stephane Grappelly (v) and Django Reinhardt (g). Other original members Roger Chaput (g), Joseph Reinhardt (g), Louis Vola (b) played rhythm. Later rhythm replacements Pierre Ferret (g), Lucien Simoens (b), Marcel Bianchi (g), Eugene Vees (g), Roger Grasset (b), Emmanuel Soudieux (b). Group played mostly in France, occasionally elsewhere. Grappelly left 1940, settled in England. Reinhardt continued during 40s with various sidemen, usually clarinetist in Grappelly spot.

(See biographies herein on STEPHANE GRAPPELLE and DJANGO REINHARDT for further data and record listings.)

1483. RAEURN, BOYD

ts bs bs-s ar cm B

*Born October 27, 1913, on farm near

Died August 2, 1966

Leader of pioneering progressive big band middle and late 40s. Studied medicine University of Chicago, led band, won 1933 college band contest held by Chicago's Hotel Sherman which led to job playing at restaurant at World's Fair. Worked in Chicago and midwest. Played reeds. Band 1934-6 hotel style, changed to swing 1937. Paul Whiteman helped band to good job 1940 at Chicago's Chez Paree club; there good radio coverage. Boyd and several bandsmen injured late 1940 in traffic accident, many instruments destroyed. Played Chez Paree 1942, went to New York first time. Early 1943 began long run at Chicago's new Band Box club; good radio coverage. Assembled top musicians, moved into modern jazz. Played top eastern hotels 1944, won acclaim. Altoist Johnny Bothwell featured star. Other sidemen at times Dizzy Gillespie (t), Trummy Young (tb), Earl Swope (tb), Benny Harris (t), Don Lamond (d), Oscar Pettiford (b), Ike Carpenter (p), Hal McKusick (as), Dodo Marmarosa (p), Buddy DeFranco (cl). Important arrangers Ed Finckel, George Handy, Johnny Richards. Featured vocalists Don Darcy, David Allyn, Ginnie Powell (whom Raeburn married). Late 1944 band lost instruments and library in fire. First important recordings 1945. Bothwell left to form band; other changes. Raeburn fronted various bands middle and late 40s with idle intervals. DeFranco starred awhile 1947, Richards arrangements featured. Recordings displayed innovations in harmony, mood and patterns, at times embraced classical themes. Records of note Tonsilectomy, Summertime, Boyd Meets Stravinsky. Raeburn won little commercial success, by 50s disbanded. Freelance arranging. Late 50s lived awhile in Nassau. Late 1955 organized band for college dates. Later 50s tried again, emphasized danceable beat rather than far-out jazz, moderately successful awhile.

Born c. 1898, St. Louis, Mo.

Died April 14, 1970

Leader of popular hotel-styled orchestra of 30s and 40s. Known as The Pagliacci of the Piano: clowning and rocking on piano bench, used exaggerated flourishes in playing. Attended Washington University of St. Louis. With Henry Thies and Art Landry mid-20s, other bands late 20s. Formed band 1931; moderate success for ten years. Good sweet records mid-30s. Early 1941 clicked at New York's Essex House, won more recordings and better bookings. Great success at Hotel Biltmore in Los Angeles 1942 to mid-40s. Reichman pianist in 1945 movie OUT OF THIS WORLD. Later 40s band toured, played Dallas and New Orleans. Band less prominent during 50s. Theme Little Thoughts composed by Reichman.

(JEAN BAPTISTE REINHARDT)

Born January 23, 1910, Belgium

Died May 16, 1953, Fontainebleau, France

Great swing guitarist; teamed with violinist Stephane Grappelly to form Quintet of Hot Club of France. Son of Gypsy violinist, early years in Gypsy caravan. Learned violin, then banjo and guitar. Permanently injured two fingers of left hand in caravan fire, developed special guitar technique to compensate. Remarkable command of instrument; blended Gypsy style with jazz. During wanderings early 30s worked with groups in Belgium and France. With Grappelly formed famed Quintet 1934. Substantial recording abroad and on U.S. labels. Grappelly left late 1939, settled in England 1940. Reinhardt continued Quintet awhile, used clarinetist Hubert Rostaing in Grappelly's place. Reinhardt to U.S. late 1946 for concerts with Duke Ellington; played New York clubs 1947. Used amplified guitar then, with no great success. Active in France till death. Composed Direct Appeal, Swing from Paris, Swing '39, Tears, Mystery Pacific, Ultrafox, Djangology, Black and White, Souvenirs, My Sweet, Stomping at Decca, H.C.Q. Strut, Daphne, Twelfth Year, Love Letters, Sweet Chorus, Minor's Swing, Swinging with Django, Paramount Stomp, Nocturne—all with Grappelly. Solo compositions include Nuages, Belleville, Love's Melody.

Born December 21, 1905, London, England
Died November 3, 1958, New York, N.Y.

Prolific composer mainly in collaboration with lyricist Mack Gordon for 30s movie musicals. Best-known songs Underneath the Harlem Moon; With My Eyes Wide Open, I'm Dreaming; Did You Ever See a Dream Walking?; Stay as Sweet as You Are; May I?; Love Thy Neighbor; Without a Word of Warning; I Feel Like a Feather in the Breeze; When I'm with You; But Definitely; Goodnight, My Love; A Star Fell Out of Heaven; Never in a Million Years; There's a Lull in My Life; Afraid to Dream; You Can't Have Everything; I've Got a Date with a Dream; I Never Knew Heaven Could Speak; Jet. Other collaborators lyricists Paul Francis Webster, Mort Greene, Arnold Horwitt. Wrote a few songs for Broadway shows, including successful ARE YOU WITH IT? (1945). Educated at Guild Hall of Music in London. Mostly self-taught pianist. At 15 toured Europe in orchestra. Began composing early for musical productions in Paris, Copenhagen, Vienna, Berlin, Rome, London. Acquired reputation. To U.S. 1929, where reputation meant little. After hard going, met Mack Gordon, formed ace songwriting team. Scores for unsuccessful Broadway shows: all-Negro revue FAST AND FURIOUS (1931), MARCHING BY (1932), SMILING FACES (1932). Several popular songs independent of shows 1932. 1933-7 team successful writing for movies. Outstanding scores for COLLEGE RHYTHM and WE'RE NOT DRESSING (1934), TWO FOR TONIGHT (1935), WAKE UP AND LIVE (1937). Team separated and each collaborated with others. During World War II Revel helped organize military entertainment. Published two magazines for disabled vets and hospital patients. Continued songwriting in 40s but less frequently and with less success. Author of book Meet the Musikids—They Wrote Your Songs.

1512A. REY, ALVINO g bn B (ALVIN MCBURNEY)

Born July 1, 1911, Oakland, Calif.

Pioneer in development of electric guitar as solo instrument. Known for beautiful chord structure and touch, not for jazz. Leader of good band popular early 40s. Grew up in Cleveland, began there professionally. With Phil Spitalny around 1930-1 (before all-girl orchestra). NBC radio staff work in San Francisco. Joined Horace Heidt there 1934, rose to fame with innovating guitar work. Left Heidt 1939 to form band, featured Four King Sisters (married Louise). Many arrangements written by Frank DeVol. Opening theme Blue Rey, closing theme Nighty Night. Rey's guitar important in band's big, melodious sound. Skeets Herfurt lead and jazz altoist, jazz clarinetist; he and rhythm guitarist Dick Morgan sang novelty. Buddy Cole on piano. Later Jerry Fielding arranged. On 1942 radio show Alvino Rey Matinee. Musical peak late 1942 but no recording then due to Petrillo ban. Band in movies SING YOUR WORRIES AWAY (1942), LARCENY WITH MUSIC (1943). Rey appeared as single in SYN-COPATION (1942; in jam session sequence). Disbanded for military service 1944-5. Formed new band late 1945 with modern arrangements by Billy May and Deane Kincaide but little commercial success. Rey studio musician in Los Angeles, occasionally on early TV. After years of obscurity, came back on 60s TV on King Family series. Cast consisted of four King Sisters plus huge clan. Rey featured often, usually on novelty guitar, occasionally on banjo.

1531. ROBERTSON, DICK vo cm lyr B

Born July 3, 1903, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Freelance singer with prolific recording output particularly during 30s. Sang with both studio and name bands in all styles from sweet to hot. Used pseudonyms on some records. Recorded 1937-42 for Decca under own name with good combos using top jazzmen. Soft voice and style easily identifiable, at best on tunes requiring sly humor or novelty touch. At times performed in clubs and theatres over U.S. and in Canada, England, France. On radio, including 1935 show Music by Gershwin. Modest success as songwriter; collaborated on At Least You Could Say Hello (1939); Is There Somebody Else?, We Three and You Forgot About Me (1940); Yesterday's Gardenias (1942); A Little on the Lonely Side and Goodnight, Wherever You Are (1944); I'd Do It All Over Again (1945); Why Did It Have to End So Soon? (1947); A Lovely Rainy Afternoon (1948). Collaborators Sammy Mysels, Nelson Cogane, Frank Weldon, James Cavanaugh. Career waned late 40s.

vo g cm lyr B

*Born September 8, 1897, Meridian, Miss.
Died May 26, 1933, New York, N.Y.*

All-time great country music performer and composer. Known as The Singing Brakeman, also Father of Country Music. Songs expressed moods of southern country folk and conditions. Compositions derived from traditional Negro and country folk music as well as pop field. Soft-voiced style laid foundation for commercialization of country music. Legend in country music at death 1933; legend grew after death. Early years railroad work, mostly as brakeman. Contracted almost fatal tuberculosis late 1924; slow recovery ended railroad work. Turned to composing and performing. Travelled about south, sometimes with tent shows. Led group Jimmie Rodgers Entertainers on radio in Asheville, N.C., toured southeast. Summer 1927 signed by Victor. Records brought quick wealth and prominence. 1927-33 recorded over 100 sides, including dozen versions of Blue Yodel (jazz backing by Louis and Lil Armstrong on No. 9). Late 1929 in ten-minute sound movie short. Busy with recording and theatre appearances. Aware of fragile health and desiring to aid needy friends, spent heavily as fast as money came in. Periods of illness and convalescence. Though health failing fast, to New York May 1933 to record because of financial need. Died in New York with session half completed. Compositions include Blue Yodel (No. 1 through 12), Daddy and Home, Lullaby Yodel, Mississippi Moon, Waiting for a Train, Yodeling Cowboy, Never No Mo' Blues, Home Call, You and My Old Guitar, In the Jailhouse Now, Why Should I Be Lonely?, I'm Lonesome Too, My Old Pal, Desert Blues, Soldier's Sweetheart, Train Whistle Blues, Brakeman's Blues, Any Old Time.

1541. RODGERS, RICHARD cm lyr p

Born June 28, 1902, New York, N.Y.

All-time composing great; prolific. Collaborated with outstanding lyricists Lorenz Hart 1919-43, Oscar Hammerstein II 1943-59. Scores for hit Broadway shows, notably THE GIRL FRIEND (1926), PEGGY and A CONNECTICUT YANKEE (1927), JUMBO (1935), ON YOUR TOES (1936), BABES IN ARMS (1937), I MARRIED AN ANGEL and THE BOYS FROM SYRACUSE (1938), TOO MANY GIRLS (1939), PAL JOEY (1941), BY JUPITER (1942), OKLAHOMA! (1943), CAROUSEL (1945), SOUTH PACIFIC (1949), THE KING AND I (1951), FLOWER DRUM SONG (1958), THE SOUND OF MUSIC (1959), NO STRINGS (1962), DO I HEAR A WALTZ? (1965). Scores for movies, notably LOVE ME TONIGHT (1932), MISSISSIPPI (1935), STATE FAIR (1945). Rodgers songs had special character and substance; blessed with witty, elegant lyrics of Hart and Hammerstein. Multitude of hits and all-time standards include Manhattan; The Blue Room; The Girl Friend; Mountain Greenery; Thou Swell; My Heart Stood Still; You Took Advantage of Me; With a Song in My Heart; Ten Cents a Dance; Isn't It Romantic?; Mimi; Lover; Blue Moon; Soon; Dancing on the Ceiling; It's Easy to Remember; My Romance; Little Girl Blue; There's a Small Hotel; The Lady Is a Tramp; My Funny Valentine; Where or When; Have You Met Miss Jones?; I Married an Angel; Spring Is Here; Slaughter on Tenth Avenue; This Can't Be Love; I Didn't Know What Time It Was; Falling in Love with Love; People Will Say We're in Love; The Surrey with the Fringe on Top; Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'!; If I Loved You; It Might as Well Be Spring; Bali Ha'i; Some Enchanted Evening; Younger Than Springtime; Bewitched; I Could Write a Book; A Wonderful Guy; I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair; Getting to Know You; Shall We Dance?; No Other Love; I Enjoy Being a Girl; The Sound of Music; Climb Ev'ry Mountain; The Gentleman Is a Dope; My Favorite Things; The Sweetest Sounds; Do I Hear a Waltz?

Rodgers educated at Columbia, met lyricist-writer Lorenz Hart there, formed songwriting team. First success with song Any Old Place with You in 1919 Broadway show A LONELY ROMEO. Seven songs for 1920 show POOR LITTLE RITZ GIRL. Little success for several years. Wrote for amateur shows and minor stage productions, had to abandon songwriting awhile. Rodgers took musical training at New York's Institute of Musical Art 1921-3. Team scores successful in 1925 Broadway shows THE GARRICK GAIETIES and DEAREST ENEMY, became established. Successes followed along with shows of modest runs. Wrote for movies early and mid-30s. Several earlier stage hits made into movies. Returned to Broadway 1935, wrote series of hit shows, many later made into movies. Former hit show A CONNECTICUT YANKEE revived on Broadway November 1943. Hart's eccentric, dissipated life affected his health. Died of pneumonia late 1943.

Rodgers began collaborating around 1942 with talented veteran lyricist Oscar Hammerstein II. First show OKLAHOMA! opened spring 1943; smash hit, ran 2,248 performances! Innovative, made stage history by veering from musical comedy tradition. Team had numerous long-running shows in 40s and 50s; later made into lavish movies with top stars. Team wrote score for 1957 TV production of CINDERELLA. 1952 TV film series VICTORY AT SEA (World War II documentary with emphasis on naval battles) featured background symphony written by Rodgers. Abridged film version in 1954. 1960 TV production Winston Churchill—The Valiant Years featured background music by Rodgers; acclaimed by music critics. Team produced shows other than those they wrote: I REMEMBER MAMA, ANNIE GET YOUR GUN, HAPPY BIRTHDAY, JOHN LOVES MARY, THE HAPPY TIME. Pulitzer Prize 1944 for OKLAHOMA!, 1950 for SOUTH PACIFIC. Various critics awards. Hammerstein died 1960. Rodgers wrote music and lyrics for next show NO STRINGS (1962). Collaborated with lyricist Stephen Sondheim on DO I HEAR A WALTZ? (1965), lyricist Martin Charnin on TWO BY TWO (1970). Occasionally on TV in 50s and 60s, usually on shows honoring his music. 1948 movie WORDS AND MUSIC based on story of Rodgers & Hart, roles portrayed by Tom Drake and Mickey Rooney. Rodgers biographies include Some Enchanted Evenings by Deems Taylor, Richard Rodgers by David Ewen, The Rodgers and Hammerstein Story by Stanley Green.

Famed entertainer from 1880s to pre-World War I period. Leading stage beauty despite large, buxom build. Educated in Chicago. As teenager to New York to study opera; turned to lighter singing. First noticed late 1880-1 singing at Tony Pastor's, adopted name of Lillian Russell. Later 1881 starred in comic opera THE SNAKE CHARMER at Bijou Opera House. 1883 began long series of Broadway musicals. Some productions Weber & Fields shows. Most successful musicals POOR JONATHAN (1890), WHIRL-I-GIG (1899), FIDDLE DEE DEE (1900), HOITY TOITY (1901), TWIRLY WHIRLY (1902). In latter sang Come Down, Ma Evenin' Star; long associated with song. Around 1905 began in vaudeville in U.S. and abroad. Unsuccessful road tour resulted in retirement 1912. Came back 1917 for vaudeville war bond drives. Movie of life LILLIAN RUSSELL (1940) starred Alice Faye appropriately in title role.

 (CHARLES ELLSWORTH RUSSELL)

*Born March 27, 1906, Maplewood, Mo. (St. Louis suburb)
 Died February 15, 1969, Alexandria, Va.*

Jazz clarinetist with eccentric, unpredictable style all his own. Raspy, dirty tone and sometimes faltering phrases drew criticism but admirers unstinting in praise. Mostly with dixieland combos. Grew up in Muskogee, Okla., played professionally early. Moved back to St. Louis around 1920, attended Western Military Academy, Alton, Ill., one year late 1920-1. Attended University of Missouri briefly. With Herbert Berger band locally and in Mexico 1922-3. Critically ill around this time; most of life looked undernourished, drank heavily, ate little. Tent and vaudeville shows with southwest bands. With Peck Kelley in Houston 1924. Rejoined Berger in St. Louis late 1924. 1925 with Gene Rodemich, Joe Gill, others locally. Late 1925 with Frankie Trumbauer at Arcadia Ballroom, combo later joined by Bix Beiderbecke. Three worked 1926 summer job at Hudson Lake, Ind. Russell joined Red Nichols in New York early 1927; with him off and on into early 30s. With Paul Specht, Louis Panico, Cass Hagan, Austin Wylie, Don Voorhees. 1933-4 in Boston, including jobs with Bobby Hackett. Freelanced in New York later 1934. With Louis Prima 1935-7 in various locales. In New York with Bobby Hackett big band 1938-9, Bud Freeman combo 1939-40. In New York dixieland groups during 40s, mainly at Nick's, later at Eddie Condon's. Worked with Condon, Georg Brunis, Brad Gowans, Wild Bill Davison, Miff Mole, James P. Johnson. Led combo at intervals beginning late 1945. Late 40s in New York with Condon, Billy Butterfield, Art Hodes, in Chicago with Hodes, Muggsy Spanier, Mole. Late 1950-1 critically ill in San Francisco, had major operation, expected to die. Benefits held as plight publicized in national magazines. Came back to lead band in Denver late 1951, Boston 1952, New York 1953. Remainder of 50s freelanced with dixieland groups. During 60s several tours abroad. Health poor at times but revived. Worked with Condon, George Wein's Newport All-Stars, Ruby Braff, Bobby Hackett during 60s. Grew interested in more modern jazz, jobbed with valve trombonist Marshall Brown. Active until shortly before death.

Giant arranger, trailblazer in late 30s and early 40s with advanced harmonics and voicings. Later prominent in 50s as co-leader of Sauter-Finegan band featuring innovating arrangements of both leaders and unusual instrumentation. As teenager played in ship bands. Educated at Columbia and Juilliard. In various dance bands early and mid-30s; 1932 stint with Archie Bleyer. First important jobs in 1935 with Charlie Barnet orchestra, then with Red Norvo combo; played trumpet and mellophone, arranged. Wrote for Norvo's big swing band beginning mid-1936; sideman in band late 1936 to early 1938. Outstanding arrangements for Norvo won fame among aficionados, set band's subtle style. More prominent arranging for Benny Goodman mid-1939 through early 40s. Composed jazz originals Superman, Benny Rides Again, Clarinet a la King and All the Cats Join In featured by Goodman. Mid-40s arranged for Goodman, Artie Shaw, Tommy Dorsey, Woody Herman.

Arranged for Ray McKinley 1946-7 and when he led New Glenn Miller Orchestra later 50s. Teamed with arranger Bill Finegan mid-1952 to form Sauter-Finegan band. Successful several years despite early doubts about commercial appeal due to unconventional style. Leaders' arrangements provided constant change of mood, featured seldom-used instruments like piccolo, flute, oboe, bass clarinet, harp, English horn and recorder (giving light, feathery tone). Odd percussion effects. Sally Sweetland and Andy Roberts good singers. Band broke up early 1957. Sauter on German radio 1957-9. 1959 into 60s teamed with Finegan to produce TV and radio jingles. Arranged for Andre Kostelanetz and Broadway musicals 60s and 70s. Other compositions Night Rider, Caesar and Cleopatra, Harold in Italy, McKinley for President, The Seventh Veil, Cyclops, Idiots Delight, The Maid with the Flaccid Air, A Summer Afternoon, Focus, Concerto for Jazz Band and Symphony Orchestra, 10,000 B.C., Wild Wings in the Woods, Eddie and the Witch Doctor, September's Sorrow, When Two Trees Fall in Love, Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum, Yankee Doodletown, Horseplay, Solo for Joe, Sleepy Village, Pictures from Sauter-Finegan Land, The Loop, The Land Between, Madame X, Sadie Thompson, Whirlpool, Scotch and Sauter, Jiving the Jeep, Pete's Cafe. Background music for movie MICKEY ONE in 1965.

v ar cm B

Born September 4, 1913, Petrograd, Russia

Died October 4, 1948, Sacramento, Calif.

Leader of popular dance band late 30s to early 40s billed as Jan Savitt & His Top Hatters. Savitt to U.S. as child 1914. Grew up in Philadelphia, studied at Curtis Institute there. Child prodigy on violin, concert master and assistant conductor of Philadelphia Symphony at early age. Musical training in Europe. Formed Savitt String Quartet early 30s. Turned to popular music; musical director on Philadelphia radio 1934. Formed dance band 1937 for radio show Music for Moderns over WCAU. Unique modernistic theme Quaker City Jazz. Late 1938 left Philadelphia to tour. Excellent vocalists Bon Bon (George Tunnell) and Carlotta Dale; later Phil Brito, Clyde Burke, Allan DeWitt. Band had beautiful ensemble sound on ballads, used double-time "shuffle rhythm" on swing. Arrangements by Johnny Watson, later Jack Pleis, occasionally by Savitt. Soloists Johnny Austin (t), Pleis (p), Gabe Galinas (as), Al Leopold (tb), Fran Ludwig (ts). Good recordings and air time helped rise. Successes: 720 in the Books and It's a Wonderful World. Savitt added strings mid-1942 but due to recording ban only four sides made by this band. In low-budget movies 1946-7. Savitt faded but active till death 1948 of cerebral hemorrhage while travelling to engagement. Composer or co-composer of 720 in the Books, It's a Wonderful World, Meadowbrook Shuffle, Green Goon Jive, Moonrise, Now and Forever, It's the Tune That Counts, Beloved Friend, It Must Be Love; serious work: String Quartet Interpretation. Collaborators Al Stillman, Harold Adamson, Johnny Watson.

bn g vo cm lyr B

Born January 6, 1924, Cleveland County, N.C.

Country and western performer, teamed with Lester Flatt to form group Foggy Mountain Boys 1948-69. Leading exponents of bluegrass style of folk music.

(See biography herein on LESTER FLATT for details on activities and records of group.)

Outstanding banjoist; unique three-finger picking produced swift flow of notes. Devised Scruggs peg, gimmick used in solos by many performers. By placing cam near tuning keys, performer can change pitch on any string, then quickly return to proper pitch. Composer or co-composer of country songs including Foggy Mountain Special, Foggy Mountain Chimes, Rocky Mountain Rock, Randy Lynn Rag, Flint Hill Special, Earl's Breakdown, Building on Sand, Crying My Heart Out Over You, Someone You Have Forgotten, I Won't Be Hanging Around, Shuckin' the Corn.

1638. SHAW, ARTIE cl as cm ar B (ARTHUR ARSHAWSKY)

Born May 23, 1910, New York, N.Y.

Giant bandleader of 30s and 40s, led varied, consistently superior groups. All-time great clarinetist. Well-conceived solos moved in clean-swinging lines. Gorgeous tone and vibrato especially effective on ballads and show tunes. Intelligent, articulate, sometimes controversial man. Grew up in New Haven, learned music, at 15 worked local jobs. Restaurant job in Cleveland 1926; with Austin Wylie there off and on 1927-9. Joined Irving Aaronson in California 1929, persuaded by tenor saxist-friend Tony Pastor in band. Intense and eager to improve musically, took up arranging. With Aaronson band on tour, in Chicago and New York. Remained in New York when band left. With Red Nichols, Paul Specht, Vincent Lopez, Roger Wolfe Kahn. Early and mid-30s on radio with Fred Rich, Ray Sinatra, Andre Kostelanetz, Howard Barlow, Peter Van Steeden, Richard Himber, Paul Whiteman. Out of music 1934-5, lived on farm, tried writing book. Later 1935 performed at New York jazz concert with small string ensemble; hit of show. Augmented strings to form dance band 1936-7 with little success. Spring 1937 formed orthodox swing band. Wrote some arrangements, worked band into prime unit. Good radio coverage in Boston 1938. Featured vocalist Billie Holiday awhile. Arranger Jerry Gray provided outstanding swing arrangements including big hit Begin the Beguine which rocketed band to number one late 1938.

Extensive recordings, top bookings and Old Gold radio show kept band at or near top 1939. Helen Forrest excellent vocalist. Tony Pastor featured on novelty and rhythm tunes, early hot tenor sax solos. George Auld took over most sax solos 1939. Les Robinson's alto sax led rich-sounding section, key to band's style and success. Drummer Buddy Rich sparked rhythm section 1939. Theme dirge-like Nightmare, showcase for Shaw's poignant, brilliant clarinet. Band in 1939 movie DANCING CO-ED. Shaw married movie's sensational young star Lana Turner—one of eight beautiful wives. Others included novelist Kathleen Winsor, actresses Ava Gardner, Doris Dowling, Evelyn Keyes. At height of success late 1939 pressure became too much. Shaw abruptly left band, went to Mexico to rest. Band continued briefly under George Auld. In spring 1940 Shaw came back with new band including strings; big record hit Frenesi. Played on Burns & Allen radio show late 1940-1. Formed Gramercy Five within band, used Johnny Guarneri on harpsichord to produce unusual sound. Group coupling of Summit Ridge Drive/Cross Your Heart attained greatest success 1943-4 during record ban. Band hits Star Dust in 1940, Moonglow in 1941. Shaw's work on Concerto for Clarinet also attracted attention. Featured early 40s: Billy Butterfield (t), Jack Jenney (tb), Jerry Jerome and George Auld (ts), Hot Lips Page (t vo), Al Hendrickson (g), Nick Fatool and Dave Tough (d), Les Robinson (as). Band in 1941 movie SECOND CHORUS.

Shaw entered navy early 1942, led outstanding band overseas featuring Tough, Claude Thornhill (p), Max Kaminsky and John Best (t), Sam Donahue (ts). After constant playing and hardships band returned to U.S. late 1943 exhausted. Shaw given medical discharge early 1944. Led big band late 1944-5 featuring Roy Eldridge (t), Jon Walton (ts), Dodo Mar-marosa (p), Barney Kessel (g). Later 40s and 50s led various bands, sometimes in modern style. Led modernized Gramercy Five late 1953-4, proved able to play progressive patterns but not in modernists' cool vibrato-less tone. Played in Australia 1954. Gave up playing, lived in Spain 1955-9. Lived with wife Evelyn Keyes in Lakeville, Conn., in 60s and 70s. Late 60s became New York theatrical and film producer. Occasionally on TV talk shows, articulate, unconventional and interesting. Wrote 1952 autobiography The Trouble with Cinderella, in 1965 three novellas under title I Love You, I Hate You, Drop Dead!. Composed jazz numbers Nightmare; Non-Stop Flight; Man from Mars; Prelude in C Major; Scuttlebutt; Mysterioso; The Gentle Grifter; Crumbun; Back Bay Shuffle; Hop, Skip and Jump; Free Wheeling; Traffic Jam; One Night Stand; The Shekomeko Shuffle; Let's Walk; Just Floatin' Along; I Ask the Stars; Shoot the Likker to Me, John Boy; Everything's Jumpin'; The Sad Sack; Who's Excited?; The Grabtown Grapple; Summit Ridge Drive; The Chant; Fee Fi Fo Fum; Monsoon; Free for All; Concerto for Clarinet; One Foot in the Groove; Comin' On. Composed melodious ballads Any Old Time (1937); Easy to Say, Moon-ray, Why Begin Again? (originally Pastel Blue), Without a Dream to My Name and Love Is Here (1939); Whispers in the Night, If It's You and Love of My Life (1940), Natch (1945).

1643. SHEARING, GEORGE

p acc ar cm B

Born August 13, 1919, London, England

English pianist with long and successful U.S. career beginning late 40s. Leading exponent of block-chord or locked-hands piano style created by Milt Buckner and Phil Moore. Shearing played simple but effective modern solo lines. Born blind, studied music at Linden Lodge School for the Blind. Played classical music, learned jazz from records. Began professionally in small clubs mid-30s. Toured with Claude Bampton band of blind musicians. Early 40s with Ambrose band. With Harry Parry Radio Rhythm Club Sextet on BBC radio. With Stephane Grappelly and Harry Hayes during 40s. To U.S. 1947 to stay, aided by writer Leonard Feather. Worked solo or led combo. Formed quintet with light, unusual, attractive sound, won popularity 1949. Vibes and guitar blended in unison with piano melody line, backed by rich Shearing block chords. Shearing conceived most arrangements, which others orchestrated. Early hit September in the Rain. Great popularity in 50s. Recorded for MGM 1949-55, Capitol till early 70s, then formed own Sheba label. Original combo Marge Hyams (vb), Chuck Wayne (g), John Levy (b), Denzil Best (d). Later vibists Don Elliott, Joe Roland, Cal Tjader. Toots Thielemans later played guitar and occasionally harmonica. Combo based in New York in 50s, west coast in 60s. Early 60s included Gary Burton (vb) and Joe Pass (g). Toured Europe 1962, Japan 1963. Shearing disc jockey 1963-4.

Later own TV show awhile on west coast. On network TV occasionally as soloist or with combo. Active into 70s. Featured performer in the 1974 tour of the Big Band Cavalcade. Composed many jazz tunes featured by combo. Best-known Lullaby of Birdland. Others include Consternation, The Fourth Deuce, The Man from Minton's, To Be or Not to Bop, Changing with the Times, So This Is Cuba?, Midnight Mood, Carnegie Horizons, Brain Wave.

1672. SINATRA, FRANK vo lyr
(FRANCIS ALBERT SINATRA)

Born December 12, 1915, Hoboken, N.J.

Giant entertainer, widely hailed as greatest of century. Probably top male singer. Notable intonation and beat, spectacular phrasing, jazz-influenced and much admired by musicians. As youth sang in vocal group on Major Bowes amateur radio show, toured months with Bowes unit. Sang on New York radio. Performing at Rustic Cabin, Englewood, N.J., when hired by Harry James mid-1939. Joined Tommy Dorsey early 1940, quickly rose. With band in movies LAS VEGAS NIGHTS (1941), SHIP AHOY (1942). Left Dorsey late 1942 for career as single. Big hit at New York's Paramount Theatre

January 1943, a sensation that year. Appearances greeted by hordes of screaming bobby-soxers. Rivalled popularity of Bing Crosby with public debating who was number one. Own radio show early 1943, other shows of varying formats into early 50s. Closing theme Put Your Dreams Away. Sang on Your Hit Parade 1944 and 1947-9. Axel Stordahl conductor and musical director on much Sinatra radio and record work. Stardom in 1944 movies HIGHER AND HIGHER and STEP LIVELY. Established movie career in ANCHORS AWEIGH (1945), displayed charm and flair for comedy.

After several less notable movies career floundered early 50s. Married, then divorced from actress Ava Gardner. Choice supporting role in FROM HERE TO ETERNITY (1953) won Academy Award, revived career, led to better movies. Extensive recording. 1954 record hit Young at Heart. Starred in top movie musicals GUYS AND DOLLS, HIGH SOCIETY, PAL JOEY, CAN-CAN. Outstanding non-musicals included THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM, THE JOKER IS WILD (portraying comedian Joe E. Lewis), THE PRIDE AND THE PASSION, SOME CAME RUNNING. Became fine dramatic actor. Reached crest of popularity late 50s and early 60s. On TV occasionally, own show fall 1957. Singing more jazz-oriented in 60s. Developed image of swinging personality as activities bathed in publicity. Leader of Hollywood's "Rat Pack," group of high-living show business friends including Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Jr., Peter Lawford. Adverse publicity to the contrary, Sinatra noted for humane acts, many anonymous. Bad publicity caused falling out with Kennedys. Later Vice President Agnew got bad press for friendship with Sinatra. Sinatra wrote lyrics for 1941 hit song This Love of Mine and for lesser songs. Retired 1971, announced partial return 1973, starred on TV specials. Triumphant comeback tour 1974. Biographies include The Voice by E. J. Kahn and Sinatra and His Rat Pack by Richard Gehman. Sinatra children Nancy and Frank Jr. successful singers, Nancy in rock-folk, Frank emulating father's style.

Died September 25, 1965, Munich, Germany

Great jazz violinist, never attained deserved success. Vibrant, singing tone, uninhibited swing style, amazing facility. Advanced playing in 30s featured flatted fifths and whole-tone chord progressions, later hallmarks of modern jazz. Good novelty and rhythm vocalist, all-around entertainer. Father taught him violin in unorthodox manner. Toured with Aunt Jemima revue 1924-6. With Alphonso Trent 1926-8; long run at Adolphus Hotel in Dallas. With Jelly Roll Morton briefly in New York. Rejoined Trent late 20s. Early 30s led combo mostly in Buffalo. Trumpet star Jonah Jones joined 1932; ideal musical union. Early 1936 combo to New York, acclaimed at Onyx Club for entertaining, free-wheeling jazz. Smith and Jones composed and featured 1936 novelty hit I'se a-Muggin'. Smith began using electric amplifier on violin. Later 30s good bookings in Chicago, Hollywood, New York (long run at Famous Door). Smith composed 1938 popular ballad It's Wonderful. Took over Fats Waller's group awhile 1942. Smith groups of 40s at times included pianists Jimmy Jones, Erroll Garner, Billy Taylor. Mostly in Chicago late 40s, on west coast in 50s to 1964. With Joe Bushkin group in New York. European tour 1965; died in Germany. Other compositions included

You'se a Viper, Desert Sands, Skip It, Time and Again, Midway, Stop Look, Would You Object?, Blues for Janet, I Wrote My Song, Blow Blow Blow. Collaborators Andy Razaf, Herb Ellis, Dizzy Gillespie, Mitchell Parish, Ray Brown.

1714. SOTHERN, ANN

(HARRIETTE LAKE)

vo

Born January 22, 1909, Valley City, N.D.

Lovely, vivacious star of more than 50 movies 1934-53. Early career on Broadway musical stage but lyrical soprano seldom heard in movies. Voice training from mother, former Danish singer. Small roles in early sound films SHOW OF SHOWS (1929) and DOUGH BOYS (1930) under real name. Met Flo Ziegfeld at party, invited to New York for stage audition. Small part awhile in Marilyn Miller show SMILES (1930). Important roles in AMERICA'S SWEETHEART and EVERYBODY'S WELCOME (1931). Changed name to Ann Sothorn, resumed movies late 1933. First starring movie LET'S FALL IN LOVE appeared early 1934, followed several months later by MELODY IN SPRING; both musicals. Other movie musicals KID MILLIONS (1934); FOLLIES BERGERE, HOORAY FOR LOVE and THE GIRL FRIEND (1935); WALKING ON AIR (1936); LADY BE GOOD (1941); PANAMA HATTIE (1942); APRIL SHOWERS and WORDS AND MUSIC (1948); NANCY GOES TO RIO (1950). Lightweight movies late 30s hurt career. Good secondary role in TRADE WINDS (1939) followed by starring movie MAISIE later in year brought new popularity, led to more MAISIE movies. Had Maisie radio show around 1945-7. Film career waned early 50s; entered TV with Ann Sothorn Show, ran several years. Wrote theme Katy for show. Later made guest appearances, had another short-running series. By late 60s less active. Owner of A Bar S Music Company, A Bar S Cattle Company. President of St. Francis Productions.

1726. SPITALNY, PHIL cl v cm B

Born November 7, 1890, Odessa, Russia
 Died October 11, 1970

Bandleader from 20s through 40s, best known as leader of all-girl orchestra 30s and 40s. Educated at Odessa Conservatory. Clarinet prodigy, toured Russia performing as youngster. Learned violin. To U.S. 1917, settled in Cleveland, played in orchestras there. With two brothers played in ensemble in dining room of Hotel Statler. Early 20s formed band, played across U.S. Innovative idea 1934: organized all-girl orchestra. Travelled about to audition, hired original 30 women from a dozen states. Members sang, doubled on instruments. Introduced at New York's Capitol Theatre, created sensation especially when it swung (though numbers overarranged and not real swing). Theme My Isle of Golden Dreams. Own radio show The Hour of Charm began early 1935, enjoyed fabulous run through 40s. Spitalny did not speak on radio due to heavy accent. Featured Evelyn & Her Magic Violin. Made theatre tours and movie shorts; decorative in both. In movies WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME (1942), HERE COME THE CO-EDS (1945). When radio show folded at end of 40s, Spitalny retired with wife Evelyn to Miami Beach. Co-composer of popular 1931 song Save the Last Dance for Me. Other compositions Madelaine; It's You, No One but You; Enchanted Forest; Pining for You; The Kiss I Can't Forget.

1727. SPIVAK, CHARLIE t cm B

Born February 17, 1906, New Haven, Conn.

Bandleader popular in 40s and 50s. Noted for muted and open straight solos, beautifully-toned lead trumpet. First big job with Paul Specht 1925-31. With Ben Pollack 1931-4, Dorsey Brothers 1934, first star-studded Ray Noble U.S. band 1935. On Glenn Miller's first 1935 all-star recordings. Jobbed in New York 1936-7 with radio bands of Al Goodman, Victor Young, Jack Miller. With Bob Crosby briefly early 1938, Tommy Dorsey several months later 1938. 1939 mostly with Jack Teagarden. No jazz soloist but powerful lead trumpeter with all bands. Formed big band early 1940 with Miller's backing. Featured full, sweet sound with own lead trumpet prominent; swung occasionally. Billed as The Sweetest Trumpet in the World. Spivak and Sonny Burke wrote band's beautiful theme Stardreams. Arrangements by Burke and Nelson Riddle, vocals by Garry Stevens. Later vocal group The Stardusters included June Hutton. 1942 band featured altoist Willie Smith and drummer Dave Tough, swing arrangements by Burke and Jimmy Mundy, sweet arrangements by Riddle. In 1944 Betty Grable movie PIN-UP GIRL, other 1944 movie FOLLOW THE BOYS. Mid-40s talented vocalist Irene Daye joined, later married Spivak. Continued as bandleader late 40s and 50s but popularity waned with demise of big bands. Disbanded 1959, settled in Florida. Led bands occasionally there, sometimes combos. Mid-60s worked in Las Vegas. Long run late 60s into 1973 with combo in Greenville, S.C.

1731. STABILE, DICK as cl ar B

Born May 29, 1909, Newark, N.J.

Bandleader late 30s into 70s. Underrated virtuoso on alto sax; beautiful tone, great execution, ability to hit stratospheric notes. As teenager in pit bands for Broadway shows CAPTAIN JINKS and SUNNY in 1925. With Ben Bernie 1928-36 as lead sax and featured soloist; attained some recognition. Formed band late 1936, got good ensemble sound, featured himself on sax and clarinet. Sax section mellow in tone thanks to Stabile's powerful lead. Featured vocalist Burt Shaw, later Paula Kelly. Theme beautiful and moody Blue Nocturne featured Stabile sax. Many arrangements by Bill Staffon. Early important mid-day radio coverage from New York location. Played New York World's Fair 1940. Early 40s wife Gracie Barrie sang, fronted band while Stabile in military service. Stabile led band late 1949 at Ciro's in Hollywood behind Dean Martin & Jerry Lewis, stayed with team during 50s in movies, radio and TV. Accompanied Martin on radio show and records later 50s. Boasted superb band with crisp full sound and outstanding arrangements. Stabile's sax remained effective. House band at Ciro's in 50s; excellent M.C. Continued leading into 70s, usually backing stars.

Born November 12, 1920, Coalinga, Calif.

Popular singer of 40s and 50s, gained fame with Tommy Dorsey before working as single. Clear voice with scarcely any vibrato yet emotional wallop; musicianly approach. As youngster she and two sisters sang on radio, jobbed. Late 30s joined vocal group The Pied Pipers, seven male singers. Reduced to quartet, group joined Tommy Dorsey early 1940. Boasted superior blend, good beat, superb phrasing. Quickly gained prominence. Included Jo's first husband John Huddleston. Jo later sang solo with band. She and Pied Pipers left late 1942, worked successfully as act on radio shows of Bob Crosby, Johnny Mercer, Frank Sinatra, Your Hit Parade. Jo left group mid-1944 for career as single, replaced by June Hutton. Late 1944 on Johnny Mercer radio show. Own 1946 radio show for Chesterfield used beautiful theme Smoke Dreams. Left late 1946, resumed late 40s. Early 50s on radio at times, own TV show. Second husband Paul Weston big help as arranger-conductor on Jo's radio, TV and record work. Pseudonymous cornball recordings popular, notably hilarious 1947 hit Tim-Tayshun (Temptation) with Red Ingle and 1957 LP with husband Weston titled The Piano Artistry of Jonathan Edwards. Record hits You Belong to Me and Shrimp Boats early 50s. Busy most of 50s, less active in 60s, eventually retired.

1760. STONE, LEW p ar B

*Born c. 1899, probably England
Died February 13, 1969, probably England*

Leader of top English dance band especially popular during 30s. Talented arranger in sweet, danceable style and sophisticated swing style. Late 20s some arranging for Ambrose band. Pianist-arranger with Roy Fox two years beginning late 1930; featured at London's popular Monseigneur Restaurant. Took over band late 1932. Wrote arrangements to feature great vocalist Al Bowlly, hold-over from Fox band. Also featured Nat Gonella (t vo), Lew Davis (tb). Theme Oh, Susannah. Personnel changed but band continued excellent with typically English full ensemble sound and solid rhythm. Bowlly went to U.S. 1935-6 with Ray Noble, again with Stone late 30s. Stone continued as bandleader; often on radio and TV. Conducting for English movies. Active into late 60s.

Born May 25, 1893, Monarat, Carroll County, Va.

Died June 14, 1968, Nashville, Tenn.

Country music pioneer. Early group consisted of wife, Uncle Eck Dunford, others. Children joined group when old enough; billed as The Stoneman Family. Began career mid-20s, recorded later 20s to early 30s. During Depression group often held non-musical jobs. Group active 40s through 60s. Retained traditional country style, adopted few later commercial trends. Many years in comparative obscurity. Debut on Nashville's Grand Ole Opry radio show early 60s; many later appearances. During 60s played in The Famous Bar, Washington, D.C., received belated attention. Attractive young girls of new generation, Donna and Ronnie, displayed talent and showmanship, sparked group later years.

vo

Born August 1878, Canada

Died January 11, 1948, Hollywood, Calif.

Electrifying singer and dancer beginning early 1900s. Fiery personality and flamboyant style occasionally caused controversy, brought publicity. Early roles in Broadway shows MY LADY (1901), THE CHAPERONS (1902), THE OFFICE BOY (1903). Rose to fame in vaudeville. Inimitable hoydenish style; pranced about stage in extravagant costumes, displayed legs, clowning, spoofed herself. Known for song I Don't Care. Blanche Merrill wrote songs for Miss Tanguay including Give an Imitation of Eva, I Can't Help It, Whistle and Help Me Along, Egotistical Eva. By 1908 top vaudeville star. ZIEGFELD FOLLIES OF 1909 last Broadway show. Thereafter top draw in vaudeville, played theatre circuits, toured with own road show. Fabulous runs at New York's Palace Theatre and Loew's State. Early 30s Depression plus advancing years curtailed bookings, led to retirement. 1953 movie THE "I DON'T CARE" GIRL starred Mitzi Gaynor as Eva Tanguay.

1786. TANNER, ELMO

vo whistler B

Born August 8, 1904, Nashville, Tenn.

Vocalist-whistler with Ted Weems band in 30s and 40s. Grew up in Detroit. Early years in auto repair and car racing. While working at Memphis service station 1927, performed on radio. Recordings and work on Chicago radio followed. Teamed two years on radio there with pianist-vocalist-composer Freddie Rose. Joined Weems 1930. Better known for whistling than vocals. Featured on Weems theme Out of the Night. Reissue of Weems 1933 record Heartaches hit in 1947, featured Tanner's whistling. Settled in Birmingham, led combo. Active early 70s in St. Petersburg, sang in quartet.

1796. TEAGARDEN, JACK tb vo B
(nicknamed "Big T")

Born August 20, 1905, Vernon, Texas Died January 15, 1964, New Orleans, La.

All-time jazz great on trombone and vocals, often blues-influenced. Big-toned trombone with inimitable buzz sound; style deceptively lazy, easily identifiable. Became known for showcase trombone and vocals on Basin Street Blues, Stars Fell on Alabama, The Sheik of Araby and A Hundred Years from Today, trombone on Lover. Brother Charlie trumpeter, brother Clois drummer, sister Norma pianist. Early professional work 1920-1 in San Antonio combo with pianist Terry Shand, later with Shand in other bands. With Peck Kelley band 1921-3 in Houston and other locales. 1923-7 many jobs with Doc Ross. Brief period with Willard Robison in Kansas City late 1924. Mid-20s with Marin's Southern Trumpeters, the Rhythm Masters, other bands mostly in southwest and south. To New York fall 1927; freelanced, minor recording. Reputation grew from jam sessions with leading jazzmen. Early 1928 with Scranton Sirens at Roseland, joined Tommy Gott in April for two months. Jazz solo on Roger Wolfe Kahn record She's a Great Great Girl created interest. Mid-1928 joined Ben Pollack, established stardom. Band in pit for Broadway musical HELLO DADDY late 1928-9. With Pollack till May 1933; brief intervals freelancing. Extensive recording late 20s to early 30s.

In Chicago summer 1933; jobs with Wingy Manone near World's Fair. With Mal Hallett fall 1933. Joined Paul Whiteman December 1933 till December 1938. Brother Charlie in band. Jack featured. Formed big band early 1939. Big, rich sound from Red Bone's arrangements, somewhat along Bob Crosby lines but deeper and more colorful. Other arrangements by Hub Lytle (ts), Chick Reeves, Fred Van Eps, Jr. Excellent lead trumpet by Charlie Spivak. Other sidemen included Ernie Caceres (cl bs ts), Lee Castle (t), brother Clois (d), vocalist Kitty Kallen. Theme I Gotta Right to Sing the Blues. Sometimes billed King of the Blues Trombone. Personnel changes frequent early 40s. Later editions of band featured brother Charlie and Jimmy McPartland on trumpet. Teagarden in movies BIRTH OF THE BLUES (1941), TWILIGHT ON THE PRAIRIE (1944; with band), THE STRIP (1951). Led bands of varying size and quality till combo late 1946. Mid-1947 joined Louis Armstrong All-Stars, featured. Left September 1951. Later 1951-2 led combo mostly at Royal Room in Hollywood, 1953 in San Francisco and Chicago. Charlie and Norma often with group. Combo in various locales till early 1956. Jack joined Ben Pollack dixieland combo awhile in Hollywood. Led groups with good jazzmen. 1957 co-led combo with Earl Hines on European tour. Led group on Asian tour for State Department fall 1958 to early 1959. Active combo leader early 60s but health began failing. Cut short last engagement in New Orleans; after brief hospital stay found dead in hotel room from bronchial pneumonia.

1797. TEMPLE, SHIRLEY

vo

Born April 23, 1928, Santa Monica,
 Calif.

Talented and most popular child star of movies middle and late 30s. Pretty tot with sweetness and charm. Amazing ability at acting, singing and dancing for young age. Movies top box office, introduced many popular songs. Shirley most associated with songs On the Good Ship Lollipop, At the Codfish Ball, Animal Crackers in My Soup, But Definitely. Enrolled in dancing school at three, made series of Baby Burlesks movie shorts spoofing hit movies. Later made Frolics of Youth shorts. Small parts in three 1932-3 movies. In nine movies 1934; two roles led to stardom. A hit singing Baby Take a Bow, specialty number in STAND UP AND CHEER; sensation in pivotal role in LITTLE MISS MARKER. First starring film BABY TAKE A BOW appeared later 1934, followed by 17 films through 30s with stars James Dunn, Randolph Scott, dancer Bill Robinson, John Boles, singer-actress Alice Faye, Victor McLaglen, singer-dancer-actor George Murphy. Shirley's reign brought flood of products bearing her name. Most successful: Shirley Temple doll. Success helped other child stars emerge, especially Jane Withers in low-budget movies.

Shirley's first box office failure in movie THE BLUE BIRD (1940) due to story line and probably to "growing up" stage.

Lovely young girl; teenage roles in 40s movies. On Junior Miss radio show 1942-3. Unable to sustain former popularity; career ended 1949. Publicized marriage to actor John Agar 1945 ended in divorce late 1949. Married TV executive Charles Black late 1950, thereafter known as Shirley Temple Black. On TV hosted The Shirley Temple Storybook show January-December 1958. 1960 hosted The Shirley Temple Show featuring children's stories; performed in some. 1967 defeated in Republican primary of special election for vacant San Francisco Congressional seat. Later appointed by President Nixon to U.S. delegation at United Nations. Proved intelligent, constructive, diligent, patriotic. Always retained wholesome qualities first displayed as child star.

1815. THORNHILL, CLAUDE

p ar cm B

Born August 10, 1909, Terre Haute, Ind.
Died July 1, 1965, Caldwell, N.J., of heart attack

Leader of outstanding dance band of 40s. Band style unique. Featured delicate shadings and tonal textures, rich use of dynamics. Thornhill's subdued, sensitive piano fit band style perfectly. Important features: French horns and clarinet choirs. Studied at Cincinnati Conservatory. With Austin Wylie around 1929-30, Hal Kemp 1930-1; some arranging for Kemp. Early 30s arranged for radio shows in New York. With Don Voorhees, Jacques Renard, Freddy Martin, Paul Whiteman, Leo Reisman. With Benny Goodman briefly summer 1934. With Ray Noble's all-star band 1935-6 as pianist-arranger. On Andre Kostelanetz radio show 1936. Led combo awhile, featured vocalist Maxine Sullivan on first records 1937. Arranger-conductor for Miss Sullivan's hit Loch Lomond. Arranged same number for Benny Goodman. To Hollywood late 1937, freelanced. Late 30s with Skinnay Ennis new band as pianist-arranger-musical director; work included Bob Hope radio show.

Formed big band 1940; hard going early days. Early 1941 booking at Glen Island Casino, good radio coverage and enthusiastic reviews in trade press brought prominence. Arranger Gil Evans important in development of band's innovative style. Many arrangements by Thornhill and Bill Borden (now head of Monmouth-Evergreen Records). Clarinetist Irving Fazola featured most of 1941. Thornhill composed and featured piano on beautiful theme Snowfall. Disbanded 1942, joined Artie Shaw's navy band, then own navy band in Pearl Harbor. New band 1946 soon clicked with A Sunday Kind of Love featuring Fran Warren vocal. Other key figures Gil Evans (ar), Danny Polo (cl). Later 40s and early 50s featured bop-flavored charts, some by Gerry Mulligan and Ralph Aldridge. On TV mid-50s leading combo. Musical director for singer Tony Bennett mid-50s, replaced by Ralph Sharon mid-1957. Later 50s and 60s mostly led combo; not prominent. Composer of Buster's Last Stand; Fare Thee Well, Annie Laurie; Memory of an Island; I Wish I Had You.

1841. TROTTER, JOHN SCOTT

p ar cm B

Born June 14, 1908, Charlotte, N.C.

Bandleader and talented arranger known for work with singer Bing Crosby late 30s into 40s. Attended University of North Carolina. Pianist-arranger in college band led by Hal Kemp, remained when group began professionally early 1927. Early band engagement in New York. Toured south, long run in Miami, played Europe 1930. Trotter's arranging gave band distinctive style with muted, clip-noted trumpets (often playing triplets), flowing sax section playing intricate passages, lower register clarinets. Trotter left late 1935, settled in Hollywood. Pianist-arranger for Nye Mayhew 1936-7. Mid-1937 began long association with Bing as musical director. Crosby style then evolving from heavily romantic to light and airy, with songs and arrangements to match. Trotter's arrangements captured new mood well and band provided excellent backing on radio and records. With Crosby on Kraft Music Hall radio shows; own summer shows for Kraft. Led band on radio shows Philco Radio Time and Chesterfield show. In 1940 Crosby movie RHYTHM ON THE RIVER. Arranged for Kirsten Flagstad, Al Jolson, Mary Martin, Judy Garland, Jose Iturbi. Musical director for George Gobel TV shows 1954-60, composed theme Gobelues.

C-mel as bas cm B

(nicknamed Tram or Trum)

Born May 30, c. 1900-1, Carbondale, Ill.Died June 11, 1956, Kansas City, Mo.

Jazz star of 20s and 30s on C-melody sax; only prominent player to feature that instrument. Became legend through association and recording with immortal jazz cornetist Bix Beiderbecke. Unorthodox jazz style: complicated runs, thin and cool tone, cerebral, advanced. Modern great Lester Young acknowledged Trumbauer influence, which through Young passed on to Charlie Parker and whole modern school. Grew up in St. Louis, studied piano, violin, flute and trombone before concentrating on C-melody sax. Later also played cornet, alto sax and bassoon. Military service, World War I. In St. Louis with bands of Max Goldman, Earl Fuller, Gene Rodemich, Joe Kayser, others. In Chicago 1923 with Benson Orchestra. With Ray Miller 1923-4. Led combo at Arcadia Ballroom in St. Louis 1925. Late 1925 Beiderbecke joined group; 1926 summer job at Hudson Lake, Ind. Late 1926 Tram and Bix joined Jean Goldkette; featured prominently. Both joined Paul Whiteman band late 1927, gained fame. Two recorded frequent jazz classics with jazz combos under own names, had great impact on musicians of late 20s and thereafter. Singin' the Blues particularly famous, later theme of Trumbauer big band. Team split when drinking forced Bix to leave Whiteman late 1929 (died 1931). Tram remained till spring 1932, led band on tour, rejoined late 1933 through most of 1936. Late 1937-8 co-led big band with Manny Klein. Later 1938 sole leader of another big band. Sometimes billed as Frank Trombar band. Spring 1939 became inspector for Civil Aeronautics Authority in Kansas City. Led band 1940, then abandoned music. Test pilot, World War II (had become pilot in 30s). Continued in aviation rest of life. Returned to music briefly late 1945 in New York studios. Composer or co-composer of jazz numbers Trumbology, F Blues, Loved One (also known as Flight of a Haybag), Wildcat, Tailspin, Krazy Kat, Sun Spots, G Blues, Three Blind Mice, Eclipse, The Bouncing Ball, Meteor, Bass Drum Dan, Red Hot, Barb Wire Blues, Wringin' and Twistin', I'm Glad.

Born 1884, Russia

Died February 9, 1966

Entertainer of stage-movies-radio-TV over long career. Sang in flamboyant, raucous style; billed as The Last of the Red Hot Mamas. To U.S. at three. Father operated restaurant in Hartford, young Sophie helped as waitress. To New York for show business career. First singing job in German Village Cafe. Worked other spots, became known, sometimes appeared at Tony Pastor's theatre. In cabarets, burlesque, vaudeville. By 1907 important. In Broadway show ZIEGFELD FOLLIES OF 1909 without great success. Took up famous number Some of These Days during Chicago engagement 1911, featured it thereafter. Replaced Gilda Gray in Broadway show SHUBERT'S GAITIES OF 1919. Starred in EARL CARROLL'S VANITIES OF 1924. Now top star. Took own combo on engagements. Ted Shapiro became piano accompanist and musical director 1921 through career. Performed abroad several times; big hit in London. Starred in sound movie HONKY TONK (1929). Later movies BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938 and THOROUGHBREDS DON'T CRY (1937), FOLLOW THE BOYS and SENSATIONS OF 1945 (1944). Own band on 1936 radio show. Late 1938-9 several short radio shows weekly. Guest appearances on radio. In Broadway shows LEAVE IT TO ME (1938) and THE HIGH KICKERS (1941). Name faded but continued club work. During 50s and 60s on TV occasionally, particularly Ed Sullivan show. Cameo role in Frank Sinatra film portraying life of comic Joe E. Lewis, THE JOKER IS WILD (1957). In later years voice diminished; featured philosophical and comic songs in half-talking style. Special material (often by songwriter Jack Yellen) ably recited by Sophie.

(HERBERT PRYOR VALLEE)

Born July 28, 1901, Island Pond, Vt.

All-time great entertainer as singer, band-leader and actor from late 20s into 70s. Popularity peak 1929-31 as singing idol. Voice thin and nasal in early years partly due to weak amplification; deepened and improved later. Early trademark singing into megaphone. Led good sweet band. Success on radio and in movies. Grew up in Westbrook, Me. Attended University of Maine one year, transferred to Yale. Interrupted college to play with band in England late 1924-5. Graduated from Yale 1927. During and after college toured in vaudeville as saxman with Yale Collegians band. Led society band in Boston fall 1927; to New York, early 1928 landed job at Heigh-Ho Club. Developed good entertaining group featuring college songs and novelties complete with props. "Heigh-ho, everybody!" famous greeting. Billed as Rudy Vallee & His Connecticut Yankees. Played alto sax and clarinet with early band. Pianist Cliff Burwell key man in band. Success playing vaudeville; early sound movie shorts. Starred in 1929 movie THE VAGABOND LOVER (early featured number I'm Just a Vagabond Lover).

Late 1929 began NBC network show for Fleischmann's Yeast. Weekly hour became a top show into late 30s, helped develop careers of Alice Faye, Frances Langford, Edgar Bergen, revived career of Frank Fay. Vallee talented host and wit. Popular theme My Time Is Your Time. Big 1930 hit Stein Song (Maine Stein Song). Other late 20s-early 30s hits Deep Night, Betty Co-ed and Life Is Just a Bowl of Cherries. Later popularized revival of Yale Whiffenpoof Song. Starred in Broadway musical GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS OF 1931. Periodically in movie musicals of 30s. In 40s ably played comedy roles as stuffed-shirt, prude or eccentric millionaire. 1939 radio show for Royal Desserts. Late 1940-2 show featured John Barrymore and Joan Davis, stressed comedy. In coast guard awhile, World War II; led band. Late 1944 resumed radio show into late 40s. Career waned; 1951 comeback in night clubs. Occasionally on TV from 50s into 70s, mostly on talk shows. M.C. on TV talent show awhile. Latterly almost abandoned singing, featured comedy. Important role in long-running Broadway musical HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING (1961); same role in 1967 movie. Played clubs early 70s. Composer or lyricist of popular songs Deep Night, I'm Just a Vagabond Lover and I'm Still Caring (1929); Betty Co-ed (1930); If You Haven't Got a Girl and Two Little Blue Little Eyes (1931); Don't Play with Fire and Vieni Vieni (1937); Oh, Ma-Ma (1938). Wrote autobiographies Vagabond Dreams Come True and My Time Is Your Time. Owner of two music publishing firms.

Died 1966

Poker-faced character actor of movies mid-40s into 60s. Slight build, suave and debonair, caustic wit. Few movie patrons aware of great earlier career on Broadway. Starred in Broadway musicals as singer, dancer, leading man adept at comedy. In several silent movies early 20s. As youth learned dancing and singing. At 17 sang in Boston opera, played many roles. Minor part in Broadway musical THE PURPLE ROAD (1913). In other shows before important role in LISTEN LESTER (1919). Then starred in succession of musicals and plays, notably with star Marilyn Miller in SUNNY (1925) and AS THOUSANDS CHEER (1933), with sultry songstress Libby Holman in THE LITTLE SHOW (1929) and THREE'S A CROWD (1930). In outstanding musical FLYING COLORS (1932). At intervals played vaudeville; smooth dancer in ballroom style of Vernon and Irene Castle. In dancing acts with Mae Murray, Mary Hay, others. Did not perform musically in more than 20 movies. Probably best role as bandmaster John Philip Sousa in movie STARS AND STRIPES FOREVER (1952); stellar performance, firm yet gentle and whimsical. Outstanding roles in LAURA (1944), THE RAZOR'S EDGE (1946), TITANIC (1953), THE MAN WHO NEVER WAS (1956), SATAN NEVER SLEEPS (1962). Known for Mr. Belvedere character in several movies.

LEW FIELDS(Moses Schanfield)

*Born January 1, 1867, New York, N.Y.
 Died July 20, 1941, Beverly Hills, Calif.
 (father of lyricist Dorothy Fields, librettist Herbert Fields)*

Famed comedy team important in early musical theatre. Weber short and fat, Fields tall and thin; portrayed Dutchmen with thick accents in broad comic routines. Formed team as youngsters in New York 1877, early featured Irish song and dance routines with comedy. Played small theatres in city and Coney Island, toured. Began playing burlesque 1884, developed rowdy style. 1896 leased own playhouse Weber & Fields Broadway Music Hall, produced and starred in shows there eight years. First show THE ART OF MARYLAND fall 1896. Others through 1903, later ones enjoying long runs. Routines lampooned current hit plays, allowed stars to perform in songs, dances and skits. Featured established names, gave unknowns start. Performers included Lillian Russell, Fay Templeton, DeWolf Hopper, Marie Dressler, Bessie Clayton, William Collier, Louise Allen, Carter DeHaven. Team broke up 1904, reunited in two 1912 shows HOKEY-POKEY and ROLY-POLY. Each in Broadway shows separately. Fields active later years as performer and producer. Opened Lew Fields Theatre late 1904 with own production IT HAPPENED IN NORDLAND. Helped famed dance team Vernon and Irene Castle during early career. Weber & Fields portrayed themselves in brief role in 1940 movie LILLIAN RUSSELL.

cm ar p

Born March 2, 1900, Dessau, Germany
Died April 3, 1950, New York, N.Y.

Composer of scores for important Broadway musicals, mostly during 40s. Wrote standard September Song for KNICKERBOCKER HOLIDAY (1938). Famous for

Mack the Knife, derivation from theme in early work THE THREEPENNY OPERA. Other leading songs My Ship; Jenny; Speak Low; Moon-Faced; Starry-Eyed; Here I'll Stay; All at Once; Who'll Buy?; Bilbao Song. Collaborators lyricists Bertolt Brecht, Maxwell Anderson, Paul Green, Ira Gershwin, Ogden Nash, Langston Hughes, Alan Jay Lerner, Arnold Sundgaard, Marc Blitzstein. At early age musical director for small opera company at Ludenscheid 1919-20. Studied further in Berlin, composed ballet and operatic music, conducted. Late 20s scores for German stage productions DIE ZAUBERNACHT, DER PROTAGONIST, ROYAL PALACE, HAPPY END well received. Did much of own orchestrating. 1928 opera DIE DREI-GROSCHENOPER (THE THREEPENNY OPERA) in five years performed thousands of times over Central Europe, briefly 1933 in U.S. Liltong score in beer-hall style. Brecht's lyrics expressed German Left's view of deteriorating conditions. Show's star Lotte Lenya became Weill's wife c. 1926-27. 1930 Weill and Brecht opera AUFSTIEG UND FALL DER STADT MAHAGONNY (THE RISE AND FALL OF THE CITY OF MAHAGONNY) even more controversial. Weill's last German opera THE LAKE OF SILVER in 1933. Set for long run but increasing Nazi violence convinced Weill, wife Lotte Lenya to flee, first to Paris. Works for French theatre, including MARIE GALANTE. To U.S. 1935. First Broadway musical JOHNNY JOHNSON (1936; modest run). Background score for Jewish history pageant THE ETERNAL ROAD (1937). Established success with KNICKERBOCKER HOLIDAY (1938) with Walter Huston in memorable role. Other stage successes, several converted into movies. Wrote Railroads on Parade works for New York World's Fair 1939. With lyricist Arnold Sundgaard wrote American folk opera DOWN IN THE VALLEY (1948) introduced at Indiana University; widely performed repertory production. Posthumous popularity of Mack the Knife followed 1954 off-Broadway revival of THE THREEPENNY OPERA with widow Lotte Lenya in original leading role. Played 95 performances, reopened 1955 to run 2,611 performances. Melody made Hit Parade mid-50s as instrumental Moritat, acquired lasting popularity 1959 as Mack the Knife with English words by lyricist Marc Blitzstein and hit versions sung by Louis Armstrong, Ella Fitzgerald, Bobby Darin. Weill's 1929 Bilbao Song given English lyrics by Johnny Mercer 1961 and popularized in 60s.

Born March 11, 1903, Strasburg, N.D.

Leader of polka and sweet dance bands mid-20s into 70s; great success on own TV show 1955 into 70s. Affable leader with unassuming manner and decided German accent. Played accordion along straight melody lines, discontinued it almost completely last decade. Began leading local combo mid-20s, specialized in polka and rustic music. Combo once called The Hotsy Totsy Boys. Late 20s on radio from Yankton, S.D. Toured early 30s. By 1934 enlarged to nine pieces. Important engagements mid-30s in St. Paul and Pittsburgh. Light style called Champagne Music; most numbers included simulation of champagne bubbling. Welk with Frank Loesser and Bob Calame composed band's apt theme Bubbles in the Wine. Late 30s in Chicago alternating between Trianon and Aragon Ballrooms. Jayne Walton capable vocalist. Played top spots during 40s, including jaunt east. Success moderate. Base Aragon Ballroom in Santa Monica, Calif., 1951-61. Late 1951 instant hit on west coast TV. Singer Roberta Linn important asset early 50s.

Welk astute businessman and judge of public taste. Began network TV 1955 with sure-fire formula: simple arrangements and competent musicians so audience could enjoy melody. Programs crammed with vocal and instrumental numbers, little chatter. Band size gradually increased to more than 20 pieces. Around fall 1956-8 second hourly show each week featured teenage band. Regular show top-rated through 50s and 60s. Featured singers included Alice Lon, Norma Zimmer, Dick Dale, Rocky Rockwell, Larry Dean, Jim Roberts, Bob Lido, Four Lennon Sisters, "Aladdin," Larry Hooper,

Joe Feeney. Outstanding jazzmen included George Thow (t), Dick Cathcart (t), Bob Havens (tb), Pete Fountain (cl), Don Benet (cl), Mahlon Clark (cl as), Peanuts Hucko (cl). Talented accordionist Myron Floren featured. Later format emphasized skits and vocals, dancing of talented Bobby Burgess-Cissy King dance team, new young singers, contemporary songs. Presentation and musicianship remained high. Besides TV, played Hollywood Palladium, other west coast spots, successful tours. LPs prolific. After ABC-TV show cancelled 1971, Welk produced shows, played on more stations than before. Composed Dakota and Waltzing in a Dream. Wrote best-selling autobiography Wunnerful, Wunnerful.

1920. WEST, MAE

Born August 17, 1892, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Sexy sensation of 30s in bawdy movies. Swaggering, preening, self-mocking style with sexy, purring voice. Adept at double-meaning wisecracks. Usually wrote own scripts. Throwback to old Bowery days; most roles and costumes of that period. Most famous line, "Why don'tcha come up and see me sometime?" became national catch phrase of 30s. As child in plays at New York's Gotham Theatre. Played vaudeville as The Baby Vamp, did imitations. Minor roles in Broadway musicals VERA VIOLETTA (1911) and A WIDOW (1912). Became well-known through risqué vaudeville routines which sometimes hit newspapers. Star in Broadway musical SOMETIME (1918). Starred in own play SEX (1926), was raided and arrested. Then starred in own plays THE WICKED AGE (1927), DIAMOND LIL (1928), THE CONSTANT SINNER (1931). Secondary role behind George Raft and Constance Cummings in movie NIGHT AFTER NIGHT (1932) brought stardom. Sensation in 1933 movies SHE DONE HIM WRONG and I'M NO ANGEL. Credited with keeping Paramount in black during Depression. Sang in sultry, half-talking style with good, jazz-influenced voice. Popular during 30s and early 40s with movies and radio appearances. Double-entendre 1937 radio stint on Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy caused national furore; banned from networks next twelve years. Starred in Broadway play CATHERINE WAS GREAT (1944) and revival of DIAMOND LIL (1949).

Played clubs at intervals; Las Vegas debut 1954. Comparative obscurity during 60s. Supporting role in much-publicized, controversial, unsuccessful movie MYRA BRECKENRIDGE (1970). Wrote autobiography Goodness Had Nothing to Do with It 1959. Wrote novels Diamond Lil (1932) and Babe Gordon (1930).

1930. WHITEMAN, PAUL

v cm B

Born March 28, 1890, Denver, Colo.

Died December 29, 1967, Doylestown, Pa.

Important bandleader beginning 1919. Leader in development and popularization of dance music during 20s. Famed concert at New York's Aeolian Hall on February 12, 1924, debuted George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, created sensation, won Whiteman title King of Jazz. Title misleading: music polite semi-jazz for general public, though gave jazzmen solo spots. Learned violin and viola, played in Denver Symphony, later in San Francisco Symphony. Military service awhile, World War I. Led band on west coast 1919; Ferde Grofe pianist. To New York 1920; early 20s developed band to prominence. Extensive recording, especially in 1928. Larger than most bands. Outstanding arranger Bill Challis joined around early 1928, showcased band's top jazzmen Bix Beiderbecke (c) and Frank Trumbauer (C-mel). Other important arrangers Ferde Grofe, Matty Malneck. Other outstanding sidemen of 20s Andy Secrest (c), Bill Rank (tb), Izzy Friedman (cl), Mike Pingatore (bn), Red Nichols (c), Jimmy Dorsey (cl), Tommy Dorsey (tb), Joe Venuti (v), Eddie Lang (g), Roy Bargy (p), Charlie Margulis (t), Harry Goldfield (t), Henry Busse (t). Last featured soft, muted trumpet with distinctive vibrato and style.

Jack Fulton trombonist and featured vocalist many years in 20s and 30s. Vocal trio The Rhythm Boys popular late 20s. Members Harry Barris, Al Rinker and Bing Crosby. Last featured on solos. Band theme Rhapsody in Blue many years. In Broadway musicals GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS OF 1922, LUCKY (1927). Crowned most popular period with movie KING

OF JAZZ (1930). Personnel changes included departure of Bix and Rhythm Boys. Featured singers of early to mid-30s Mildred Bailey, pianist Ramona Davies, Red McKenzie, Peggy Healy, Johnny Mercer, Jack Teagarden (tb to 1939), Johnny Hauser, Durelle Alexander, later 30s Clark Dennis, Joan Edwards, The Modernaires vocal quartet. Sidemen of 30s included Bunny Berigan (t), Charlie Teagarden (t), Al Gallodoro (as), Sal Franzella (cl), Art Drelinger (ts), Miff Mole (tb), Frank Signorelli (p), Trumbauer through 1936. Arrangers of 30s included Fud Livingston (cl ts), Adolph Deutsch, Toots Camarata, Joe Mooney. Fine dance and show band in 30s.

Own radio show 1933, co-starred with singer Al Jolson 1933-4. Late 1934-5 on Kraft Music Hall show till taken over by Bing Crosby early 1936. On own Music Varieties show 1936, Chesterfield show 1938-9. In important 1935-6 Broadway musical JUMBO. By late 30s popularity waned. On Burns & Allen radio show early 40s, own series during 40s, On Stage America show 1947-8. In movies THANKS A MILLION (1935), STRIKE UP THE BAND (1940), ATLANTIC CITY (1944), RHAPSODY IN BLUE (1945). Periods of inactivity in 40s and 50s. Hosted Paul Whiteman's Teenagers show on TV early 50s, served as M.C. of excellent Jackie Gleason 1955 summer replacement TV show presenting several bands each week, all styles. Mostly inactive later years, occasionally fronted band late 50s and 60s. Co-composer of popular songs Wonderful One (1922), When the One You Love Loves You (1924), Charlestonette (1925), Flamin' Mamie (1926), My Fantasy (1940); based on Borodin theme).

vo g cm lyr B

Born September 17, 1923, near Georgiana, Ala.

Died January 1, 1953, Oak Hill, W. Va.

Country singer-guitarist, all-time great composer of country music. Many compositions now standards. Stature and legend grew after death at 29. As teenager led country band in Montgomery. Worked mostly in that area, usually as Hank Williams & His Drifting Cowboys. Known for dissipation and high living. Married Audrey Shepherd, who became driving influence in career. First hit record 1947's Move It On Over. Wife arranged 1948 for Williams to audition compositions before composer-publisher Fred Rose, which won publishing contract. Williams launched, starred on Louisiana Hayride radio series April 1948 from Shreveport, La. Compositions and records led to stardom. Sensation in first performance mid-1949 at Nashville's Grand Ole Opry; appeared often until fall 1952. Songs ranged over moods of happiness, loneliness, bitterness, tragic love. Recorded monologues and philosophical numbers sometimes as Luke the Drifter. Attained wealth and fame but led stormy, eccentric life. Divorced from Audrey, married Billie Jones.

Final months of life hectic and frustrating; career ebbed. Used sedatives and alcohol to excess, though death attributed to heart attack. While driven by chauffeur to booking in Canton, Ohio, discovered dead in back seat of Cadillac during stop at Oak Hill, W. Va. Record I'll Never Get Out of This World Alive became best-seller after death. Became legend; songs more famous after death. 1964 movie YOUR CHEATIN' HEART depicted Williams life. George Hamilton effective in Williams role; Williams songs performed. Most famous compositions Your Cheatin'

Heart; Jambalaya; Hey, Good Lookin'; I Can't Help It; Kaw-Liga; Mansion on the Hill; Cold, Cold Heart; I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry; Lovesick Blues; Honky Tonkin'; Crazy Heart; Half as Much; There'll Be No Tear Drops Tonight; Move It On Over; I'll Never Get Out of this World Alive. Other compositions included *Ramblin' Man; Why Don't You Love Me; You Win Again; I Saw the Light; Six More Miles (to the Graveyard); Settin' the Woods on Fire; My Heart Would Know; Baby, We're Really in Love; Alone and Forsaken; I Can't Get You Off of My Mind; I Could Never Be Ashamed of You; Howlin' at the Moon; Nobody's Lonesome for Me; Weary Blues from Waitin'; My Son Calls Another Man Daddy; Low Down Blues; I Can't Escape from You; I'm Sorry for You, My Friend; W.P.A. 1968. WINDING, KAI tb ar B

Born May 18, 1922, Aarhus, Denmark

Important bop trombonist of 40s and 50s particularly. Exciting soloist, warm and intense with flowing conceptions. To U.S.
1934. Periods in 1941 with Sonny Dunham, Alvino Rey. Military service, World War II. Late 1945-6 with Benny Goodman several months. Joined Stan Kenton early 1946 over a year, gained prominence. With Charlie Ventura 1947-8; later 1948 co-led combo with Buddy Stewart.
1949 into 50s freelanced, led groups at intervals. August 1954 teamed with trombonist J. J. Johnson to co-lead combo.
Attracted attention with unusual instrumentation featuring two trombones.

Mid-1956 two split; together awhile late 1958. Winding led various-sized groups late 50s and 60s; often solo horn with rhythm section. On later recordings sometimes led large bands in commercial or contemporary style. Late 60s joined World's Greatest Jazz Band, dixieland group of outstanding veterans. Quit around 1970, jobbed on west coast.

cm p

*Born September 27, 1898, New York, N.Y.
 Died April 5, 1946, Denver, Colo.*

Great composer of 20s and 30s; career cut short at early age by long illness. Scores for important Broadway musicals NO, NO, NANETTE (1925) and HIT THE DECK (1927). Best-known songs Tea for Two, Hallelujah, I Want to Be Happy, Sometimes I'm Happy, I Know That You Know, Great Day, More Than You Know, Without a Song, Time on My Hands, Through the Years, Drums in My Heart, Rise 'n' Shine, Flying Down to Rio, Carioca, Orchids in the Moonlight, Keepin' Myself for You. Collaborators included lyricists Ira Gershwin, Otto Harbach, Oscar Hammerstein II, Irving Caesar, Anne Caldwell, Billy Rose, Clifford Grey, Leo Robin, Edward Eliscu, Harold Adamson, Ed Heyman, Gus Kahn, Buddy DeSylva, Mack Gordon, composer Herbert Stothart. Educated at Trinity School, Mamaronck, N.Y., and Heathcote Hall, Rye, N.Y. Worked in Wall Street firm. Military service, World War I; helped produce musicals at Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Pianist and songplugger for Harms publishing firm. Worked with Victor Herbert rehearsing theatre singers, became interested in writing for musical stage. First score for moderately successful TWO LITTLE GIRLS IN BLUE (1921). Two hit shows of 1925 and 1927 highlights of career. Most others modest runs despite some good scores. Produced shows HIT THE DECK, GREAT DAY! and THROUGH THE YEARS. Late 1933 movie FLYING DOWN TO RIO featured excellent Youmans score. Shortly thereafter contracted tuberculosis and entered Denver sanitarium. Later able to leave but musical activities held to minimum. Worked in New Orleans on symphonic works, never finished. Elaborate classical show The Vincent Youmans Ballet Revue dismal failure in Baltimore and Boston 1944. Entered New York hospital 1945, returned to Denver sanitarium, died 1946. NO, NO, NANETTE revived on Broadway early 70s to great acclaim. Ruby Keeler, Patsy Kelly, other veteran performers featured over long run. Show gave Youmans songs new life.

(nicknamed PRES or PREZ)

Born August 27, 1909, Woodville, Miss.

Died March 15, 1959, New York, N.Y.

All-time great tenor sax jazzman particularly outstanding mid-30s to mid-40s. Soft tone with little vibrato; swung in light, clean style, lagged behind beat. Pioneered new style. Tone and fresh ideas laid groundwork for bop and modern cool sound. Older brother of drummer Lee Young. Grew up in New Orleans, moved to Minneapolis, played in father's family band in area and on tour early to mid-20s. Toured midwest and northwest 1928-30 with Art Bronson band. Early 30s in Minnesota, including jobs at Nest Club in Minneapolis. Also played alto sax early in career. With Original Blue Devils 1932-3 in Oklahoma City and on tour. In Kansas City 1933-4 with Bennie Moten, Clarence Love, King Oliver. With Fletcher Henderson several months 1934 on tour to New York. Jobbed in various locales next two years. Joined Count Basie combo at Reno Club, Kansas City early 1936. Remained when Basie augmented to big band and went to Chicago and New York late 1936. With band till late 1940. Innovating solos won acclaim. On classic pickup records with Teddy Wilson. Billie Holiday nicknamed him Pres or Prez, short for The President. Led combo briefly at Kelly's Stables in New York early 1941. Later 1941-3 co-led combo with brother Lee on west coast and in New York. 1943 with Al Sears, including USO tour. With Dizzy Gillespie briefly fall 1943. Rejoined Basie late 1943-4. Military service fall 1944-5. With Jazz at the Philharmonic 1946 and later, including tours abroad. Led groups late 40s and 50s. Hospital confinements in 50s. Last work early 1959 in Paris; died shortly after return to U.S. Young slipped postwar; pale imitation of earlier greatness. Tried to fit with emerging bop and with tenor sax honking-squealing vogue featured in Jazz at the Philharmonic concerts. Lacked former drive and confidence. Composer or co-composer of jazz numbers Tickle Toe, Taxi War Dance, Lester Leaps In, Jumpin' with Symphony Sid, Nobody Knows, Baby Don't Tell on Me, Rock-a-bye Basie.

2005. ZIEGFELD, FLO
(FLORENZ ZIEGFELD)

Born March 21, 1869, Chicago, Ill.
Died July 22, 1932, Hollywood, Calif.

Most important producer of Broadway musicals. Famed for ZIEGFELD FOLLIES extravaganzas. Perfected revue-type show. Master of spectacle, top impresario. Around 1893 managed strongman Sadow, who gave exhibitions of strength and permitted ladies to feel his muscles. Heard star entertainer Anna Held in Europe, contracted to manage her in U.S. Miss Held to U.S. 1896, starred in Broadway shows. She and Ziegfeld married 1897, divorced 1913. First ZIEGFELD FOLLIES in 1907, followed by later editions almost every year through 20s. Pattern: large all-star cast, beautiful chorus girls, sometimes a special beauty, many songs, dances, comics and skits. Lavish production numbers often based on current events or fads. Many songwriters contributed, notably Dave Stamper and Gene Buck. Others included Raymond Hubbell, Louis A. Hirsch, Irving Berlin, Victor Herbert. Early songs often lightweight, attained no outside popularity. Songs improved; hits from later editions. Other show series copied Ziegfeld format: GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS and GREENWICH VILLAGE FOLLIES beginning 1919, EARL CARROLL'S VANITIES beginning 1923.

Leading Ziegfeld stars Bert Williams, Will Rogers, Fanny Brice, Eddie Cantor, W. C. Fields, Ed Wynn, Ray Dooley, Leon Errol, production singer John Steel. Other important stars performed less frequently. Early featured beauties Ann Pennington and Lillian Lorraine developed as musical performers. Chorines aspired to become Follies girls. Branched out 1915 with FROLICS series of cabaret revues atop New Amsterdam Theatre: intimate revues, often featured lesser performers as proving ground. Series lasted seven years. Financial setback with 1926 show NO FOOLIN' (later titled ZIEGFELD'S AMERICAN REVUE OF 1926). Built Ziegfeld Theatre, opened 1927 with hit show RIO RITA, followed at year's end with greater hit SHOW BOAT. 1929 at crest of financial success when tide turned. SHOW GIRL opened July 1929, financial failure with 111 performances. Lost fortune in stock market crash fall 1929. Having faith in country's ability to bounce back, presented shows SMILES (1930) and HOT-CHA (1932), both financial failures. Last FOLLIES show 1931 modest success. Successful 1932 revival of SHOW BOAT saved Ziegfeld from bankruptcy before death: ironic curtain to illustrious career.

Other productions bore Ziegfeld name after death: ZIEGFELD FOLLIES OF 1934, 1936, 1943, 1956 (did not survive road trials), 1957; movies ZIEGFELD GIRL (1941), ZIEGFELD FOLLIES (1946). 1936 movie THE GREAT ZIEGFELD starred William Powell in excellent performance as Ziegfeld, with Luise Rainer as Anna Held. Big-budget film 184 minutes long, one of top 1936 movies.

2006. ZURKE, BOB p cm B
Born January 17, c. 1911, Detroit, Mich.
Died February 16, 1944, Los Angeles, Calif.

Strong swing and boogie woogie pianist known for work with Bob Crosby late 30s. Sometimes called The Old Tomcat of the Keys. With Oliver Naylor in Philadelphia late 20s and early 30s. Early jobs in various locales with Thelma Terry, Henry Biagini, Fred Bergen, Joe Venuti, Seymour Simons. Starred with Bob Crosby mid-1936 to spring 1939. Featured numbers included Honky Tonk Train Blues, Little Rock Getaway, Yancey Special, Gin Mill Blues, Eye Opener, Tea for Two. Led big band mid-1939 to early 1940. Excellent band with good arrangements, many by Fud Livingston. Featured swing with dixieland overtones and boogie woogie, performed ballads well. Zurke lacking as disciplinarian, band not commercially successful. Later 1940 worked as single in Chicago, worked way to west coast 1941. Played at The Hangover club in Los Angeles summer 1942 until death. Collapsed in club, died next day in hospital, cause listed as pneumonia. Composed jazz numbers, notably Southern Exposure, Big Foot Jump, Call Me a Taxi, Hobson Street Blues (theme), Eye Opener, Tom Cat on the Keys, Nickel Nabber Blues.

APPENDIX C

Academy Award Winners and Nominees for Music, 1934-1972

Categories changed slightly over the years. The number of song nominees varied each year until 1946 when the number settled at five.

There are a few discrepancies in the years of songs and movies as compared to the years shown in this work because Academy Award eligibility is determined by norms slightly different from those used in these pages.

1934

Scoring—Louis Silvers (ONE NIGHT OF LOVE)

Song—The Continental (Con Conrad-cm; Herb Magidson-lyr)

APPENDIX D

Record Collecting for Beginners

These volumes list many thousands of phonograph records, a respectable percentage of all the popular and jazz records of the century. Perhaps this has awakened your interest in long-past songs and record performances, and whetted your appetite to acquire some of these records. Have no fear that these records are no longer obtainable. Many circulate among the thousands of record collectors throughout the world. Individual finds turn up regularly. I myself have dealt in old records since 1948, and most of the records listed herein passed through my hands at one time or another. For those readers uninitiated in the art of record collecting, it might be helpful to pass along information on the various methods for locating out-of-print records (whether 78s, 45s or LPs).

The cheapest method requires some time and legwork but can be rewarding. This entails hunting for records in various shops dealing in second-hand items: stores run by the Salvation Army, Goodwill, Volunteers of America and other charitable organizations, swap shops, flea markets, used furniture stores, sidewalk sales. Then there are garage sales, rummage sales, library sales, household auctions. As you become accustomed to looking through old records, you will gradually acquire some knowledge of record labels. This enables you to distinguish between old and recent records. A knowledge of songs and their approximate period of popularity is helpful. Using these volumes will develop this knowledge. Record hunting then takes on the excitement of a treasure hunt. You will have to wade through a mountain of worthless records; but when you turn up the occasional gem, and sometimes a sizable cache, you experience the thrill of discovery.

But a word of warning. A record isn't valuable simply because it's old. In fact, most old records are worthless. How to tell the valuable ones? Mainly by consulting sales and auction lists put out by collectors (see below). Collectors never list worthless records. The artists they list are the ones whose records are still in demand.

A record, of course, may have little or no market value but may still appeal to you.

Another source of old records can be the local newspaper. The want ads often yield records for sale, usually from the contents of garage or rummage sales. Families moving to another city often sell household items, including records. You yourself can advertise in the "Wanted to Buy" section. Be sure to state the general type and period of record desired, perhaps giving the price range you are offering.

The third method is the quickest and easiest but usually the most expensive, purchasing records by mail. Dozens of collector-dealers sell old records by mail. They publish periodic sales-auction lists. Sometimes records are sold at set prices. More often they are sold at auction, usually with minimum bids stated. The playing condition of each record is spelled out, and condition plus rarity plus demand determine a record's value. Record lists set out the rules and grading symbols to aid the collector in bidding and/or ordering. The novice collector will soon come to understand the grading and procedures. Listed below are some dealers who publish sales-auction lists. They will send you a copy of their current list upon request:

APPENDIX E

Numerical Listings of Principal Record Labels, Mid 20's Through Early 40's

The pages following include numerical lists of the most important labels in their most important musical periods. They provide a useful reference for collectors and give a revealing overall view of the march of popular music and jazz.

The author developed these numerical lists over the past fifteen years. The sources were record catalogs, specific recordings and lists issued by record dealers. Since the latter sometimes give only partial titles or contain errors, a small percentage of this list remains incomplete. I hope readers will help me fill in the blanks for a future Revised Edition—just as collectors in the past have been generous with their help.

Included are the following labels and series:

VICTOR 20000-21000-22000-24000-25000-26000-27000

BLUEBIRD 5000-6000-7000-10000-11000

OKEH 40000-41000

COLUMBIA 1-D through 3176-D, 35000-36000

BRUNSWICK 4000-6000-7000

DECCA 100-4455

MELOTONE 12000-13000-350000-50000-60000-70000

PERFECT 15000-16000

VOCALION 1000-1745, 15855-899, 25001-21, 2522-6747

In the late 30s record companies began producing albums of 78s. To flag these albums, ditto marks are used under the artist's name for succeeding records in an album. No attempt is made to designate albums with a variety of artists.

These numerical listings, when used in conjunction with the Time Charts in Appendix B, enable you to date the record releases with a high degree of accuracy (though not, of course, with exactness). Release dates are not the same as recording dates, needless to say. But with popular songs, release dates tended to follow recording dates by about one month.

INDEX

Popular Songs

In the index entries that follow, references in normal type (1925BM) refer to Music Year-by-Year, 1900-1950 (Volume I of this encyclopedia). The small capitals refer to the subsection of the year cited: BM—BROADWAY MUSICALS, MM—MOVIE MUSICALS, PS—POPULAR SONGS, RR—REPRESENTATIVE RECORDINGS.

A single larger A identifies the entry as an Academy Award winner or nominee (see Appendix C, Volume IV).

Sans-serif numbers (692) refer to Biographies (Volumes II and III). Numbers from 1 through 1047 appear in Volume II; numbers from 1048-2006 appear in Volume III.

Duplicate references in this index have been consolidated. The user of the index should bear in mind that any reference (such as 1945RR or 609, for example) can be assumed to contain one or more mentions of the indexed item.

Variations will be found in titles for the same songs. The data sources are many and varied—phonograph records, record catalogs, record sales lists, discographies, magazines, etc.—and neither producers, collectors, nor musicians have necessarily striven for complete accuracy or consistency.

Additionally, duplication of titles will be found. This generally indicates a second (or further) distinct song of the same title. Where such duplications appear, to the extent possible they are listed chronologically.

INDEXES & APPENDICES

Four massive indexes enhance the value of this work as a unique repository of data on popular music and jazz:

- INDEX OF SONGS. A staggering 28,161—far and away the most comprehensive ever assembled.
- INDEX OF PERFORMERS. 11,505 names—most extensive ever assembled.
- INDEX OF MOVIE MUSICALS. A total of 1,230. Most complete list of film musicals ever published.
- INDEX OF BROADWAY MUSICALS. Includes 1,522 shows—most complete list available.

Of the five appendices, the first is priceless, the other four useful:

- Numerical Listing of the Nine Major Record Labels. This awesome list covers, by artist and selection and in numerical order, popular and jazz records issued by Victor, Columbia, Okeh, Brunswick, Decca, Vocalion, Perfect, Melotone and Bluebird from the mid-20s through the early 40s. Never before in book form, it encompasses 33,000 records.
- Academy Award Winners and Nominees for Music, 1934-1973.
- Down Beat* and Metronome Poll Winners, 1937-1973.
- Time Chart Showing Release Dates, Year by Year, of 19 Major Record Labels, 1924-1945.
- Record Collecting for Beginners. Helpful essay shows how to find rare 78s and LPs.

BIOGRAPHIES

L THROUGH Z

Roger D. Kinkle

Introduction by George T. Simon

This four-volume set is the definitive data bank on American popular music and jazz. No other work compares to it for depth and range of information on popular music and jazz in film, on records, in radio and TV, on Broadway and in vaudeville. And no other work integrates the two principal streams in American music, popular and jazz—and documents their relationship.

The coverage is exhaustive:

MOVIE MUSICALS. Every known film musical (some 1,200 in all) from The Jazz Singer through 1950: casts, songs, composers, year of release.

PERFORMERS. Biographies of every major and semi-major figure to emerge in the first half of this century: singers, composers, bandleaders, actors, musicians, impresarios, arrangers—2,105 in all. Includes career summaries, key dates, complete lists of film and Broadway musicals for each artist, lengthy lists of representative recordings spanning the career of each artist, all major and semi-major songs of each composer by year—in short, every key fact about every artist. (The 1900-1950 in the title refers to every performer to emerge during this period. When a career extends beyond 1950, that career is followed as long as the performer remains active—up through early 1974. Thus, the work actually covers popular music and jazz through the 20th century, but excludes rock.)

SONGS. Most popular songs year by year, with composers — some 100-200 songs per year. In addition, virtually every remembered song of the period is listed with its composer and/or with the artists identified with the song — some 28,000 songs in all.

REPRESENTATIVE RECORDINGS. Outstanding and typical popular recordings from the dawn of 78s in 1909 through 1950 — average about 150 per year. Outstanding and typical jazz recordings from the debut of jazz on records in 1917 through 1950 — average about 75 per year. But besides these annual listings, the set features a broad, in-depth, selective discography/solography for every performer whose biography appears here.

BROADWAY MUSICALS. Every known musical, 1900-1950: casts, playwrights, songs, composers, dates. Some 1,500 in all.

BROADCASTING. Extensive treatment of each artist's role in radio and TV. Most complete coverage extant on music in broadcasting.

4 MAJOR INDEXES. These priceless tools speed the reader to the information he needs in seconds:

- Index of Songs. A massive 28,161. Most complete list extant.
- Index of Performers. 11,505 names. Most complete list extant.
- Index of Movie Musicals. 1,230 films. Most complete list extant.
- Index of Broadway Musicals. 1,522 in all. Most complete list extant.

5 USEFUL APPENDICES.

- > Numerical listing of the nine major record labels, from the mid-20s through the early 40s, by artist and song. Lists 33,000 records. First time available in book form.
- > Academy Award winners and nominees for music, 1934-1973.
- > Down Beat and Metronome poll winners, 1937-1973.
- > Time chart showing release dates, year by year, of 19 major record labels, 1924-1945.
- > Record Collecting for Beginners: helpful essay on how to find rare 78s and LPs.

For professionals and for buffs — in music, film, records, broadcasting, the musical stage and vaudeville — this set finally documents, in sweeping detail, the richest popular music the world has ever known, in its golden era.
